BRADLEY TO BECOME CHIEF OF STAFF

Santa's Arrival for Parade Only Hours Away

It's only a matter of hours now until the big moment of Santa's arrival in Marion. Everything is in readiness for the huge reception made possible by the Marion Chamber of Commerce, so boys and girls get your chores done early and be on hand promptly at 1 o'clock Saturday to welcome the jolly old fellow and his wife.

The floats are ready, the children and grownups of storybook fame are just waiting to don their costumes, the Christmas lights are ready to be turned on tonight, store windows are ablaze with lights and gifts. Santa's headquarters are completed in the lobby of the courthouse and other details have been cared for.

Adding to the decorations are the festive Christmas trees which outline the parade route through the business district.

The parade will be staged promptly at 1 o'clock the sponsors announce. Following the parade Santa will greet the children at the courthouse, following the welcoming ceremonies. According to plans Santa will be at his headquarters Monday to Saturday from 10 to 11 a. m. and 2 to 4 p. m. with the exception of Friday when the hours will be 2 to 4 and 7:30 to 8:30 p. m. He will not be receiving the children on the Thanksgiving holiday.

Parade Route

The parade will start on West Center street below Orchard street, proceed east to State street, go south on State street to Church street, west on Church street to Main, north on Main to the courthouse where Santa Claus will be officially welcomed by Mayor Harry L. Dowler.

In the first division, which will form on Selby court, will be a police escort, P. L. Felder, marshal, Mayor Harry L. Dowler, R. T. Mason, president of the Chamber of Commerce and Harold Carroll, chairman of the retail board of managers, Chamber of Commerce, Boy Scouts carrying American Flags, the Caledonia High school band, float and six story book characters.

The second division will form on Garden street with William Noel as division leader, Boy Scouts with 18 United Nations flags, Cardington High school band, float and six story book characters.

In the third division, which will form at the Ohio Public Service Co. terminal building on West Center street will be Ray Coleman, division leader, Boy Scouts carrying 18 United Nations Flags, the Richwood High school band, float and six story book characters.

The fourth division will form at the Ohio Public Service Co. terminal building, with Jack Lautenslager as division leader. In this group will be Boy Scouts carrying 19 United Nations flags, six story book characters, the Harding High school band and Santa Claus float. The police car will complete this division.

Santa Claus' float will park at the west side of the courthouse where he will be officially welcomed by Mayor Dowler. This will be broadcast over the local station WMRN.

List of Regulations

The following regulations have been arranged and all divisions are asked to follow them carefully.

Boy Scout flag bearers are requested to report at the Y. M. C. A. at 12 noon and march to Ohio Public Service terminal building with flags where they will be assigned to their Division.

Boy Scouts who are to wear story book costumes are requested to meet at the Y.M.C.A. for equipment at 12 noon. Transportation will be furnished to Terminal building where they will be assigned to their division.

Girls for floats are requested to report at Y.M.C.A. at 12 noon and wear fur coats if they have them as the costumes may be impractical if the weather is too cold. Transportation will be provided to Terminal building.

Dealers cars are requested to report at Y.M.C.A. at 12:15 p. m. and transport girls to Terminal building.

Jeeps are requested to be in place in each Division by 12:30 p. m.

Bands are requested to be at assigned places by 12:30 p. m. and ready to march at 12:45 p. m.

Each Division will be in charge of a division leader who will receive additional instructions.

Ample space is to be allowed between each division as well as spacing of units in each Division.

Boy Scout leaders will be informed on flag bearers and story book characters.

When disbanding at courthouse, floats will move off after unloading. Boy Scouts are to return to Y.M.C.A. Cars are to take girls to Y.M.C.A.

MEYERS SIGNS FALSE RECORD, PROBERS TOLD

General Admits Affidavit Concerning Cadillac Car Not True.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21—Red-faced and flustered, Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers acknowledged today that he once signed a false affidavit concerning use of the Cadillac automobile which has figured in the senate investigation of his wartime activities.

The acknowledgement came as members of the senate war investigating committee cross-questioned him on his story that he set up the Aviation Electric Co. solely to help "my girl friend," Mrs. Mildred Lamarre, wife of the man who became its president.

Mentioning the Cadillac, which B. H. Lamarre said Aviation Electric bought for Meyers, Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) asked Meyers whether the car ever had been used by Aviation Electric prior to Jan. 1, 1942—that is, prior to a wartime government freeze order on deliveries of new cars.

"No," Meyer replied.

Then why, Ferguson shot back, had Meyers signed an affidavit to the District of Columbia auto license bureau that the car had been "bought, paid for and used by the Aviation Electric Company before Jan. 1, 1942?"

"Is that your signature?" Ferguson demanded, turning the affidavit over to Meyers.

Says It Was Routine

Flushing, Meyers said it was, but that he had signed it as "just a routine thing." He said, "anybody would have signed it."

"Why would an officer in the United States Army file a false affidavit when there was a rationing order coming up?" Ferguson demanded.

Meyers repeated that he had signed it simply as a routine matter. When committee counsel William Rogers took issue with him on this, Meyers shouted.

"I think you would have signed it, too, Mr. Rogers."

Rogers angrily declared there was no call for such a statement.

Ferguson commented that there would not be much point to affidavits if they could be explained away as Meyers was trying to.

Lamarre, who left a $35 a week job to become head of the concern, has testified that Meyers got more than $150,000 in profits from the firm's million-dollar-plus aviation subcontracts.

The senate group is investigating Meyers' relations with war contractors. During the war, the general was deputy chief of air force procurement (purchasing).

Lamarre is 35 and his wife is younger. The 52-year-old general's story was that the husband acquiesced to his affair with Mrs. Lamarre.

Chairman Ferguson (R-Mich) began today's session by asking Meyers for any records or documents to support Meyers' claim that $18,000 he acknowledged receiving from the company was repayment of a loan to the Lamarres.

The general replied that a letter from Lamarre on last September 27—after the senate probe started — confirmed the $18,000 loan and repayment.

Ferguson said this letter was

VETS' BUREAU CHIEF TO GET TOP POSITION

Truman Announces Change To Be Made When Eisenhower Steps Out.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21—Gen. Omar N. Bradley is to be the Army's new chief of staff, President Truman said today, and will be succeeded as veterans administrator by Carl R. Gray Jr., Chicago railway executive and industrialist.

Bradley will take over the top Army job when Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower retires next spring to become president of Columbia university in New York.

Just when this shift will take place, Mr. Truman said, is indefinite, but Gray will start his new duties as veterans administrator Jan. 1.

Meanwhile, the President told a news conference, Bradley will make a survey of the Army department's facilities.

Gray, a Republican, is vice president of the Chicago and Northwestern Railway company.

Born in Michita, Kan., 50 years ago, he served as captain, major and lieutenant colonel in the United States engineer reserve. He was appointed brigadier general in charge of railway transportation in the allied European theater of war in 1943.

More Controls Asked

Aside from these appointments, the President in response to questioning said he wants the commodity exchanges controlled just as the New York Stock exchange is controlled. He proposed control of the commodity exchanges in the 10-point anti-inflation program he outlined for congress, but left out details. He was not prepared to go into details today.

But Mr. Truman told reporters that such controls would apply to cotton and wool markets as well as grain trading. Asked if block purchasing of commodities for distribution is proposed, the reply was that everything is being considered for submission to congressional committees including strengthening of export controls.

The President said reaction to his message to congress on European relief and cost-of-living curbs has been very satisfactory. The Marshall plan, providing long-range, self-help recovery for Europe, will be submitted to congress in about 10 days, he added.

Informed Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) has said his recommendation for limited authority to impose price-wage controls and consumer rationing is totalitarian, Mr. Truman replied he has no comment and added his speech speaks for itself.

Agrees on One Taft Point

A reporter told the President also that Taft has suggested the President already has export control power but has not used it. Mr. Truman said that is correct, but added the President never makes use of such powers to their full extent unless needed. They are used only where they do the most good.

Asked about criticisms that the United States is still shipping heavy machinery to Russia, Mr. Truman said the Soviets have a purchasing commission here and that it is buying machinery needed for repairing dams and for farm work. He said he sees no reason to stop such exports now.

He would not comment on the action of Canada in imposing certain restrictions on American imports.

Mr. Truman said he is appointing Gen. C. V. Cates as commandant of the Marine Corps succeeding Gen. A. A. Vandegrift.

At the same news conference, the President disclosed that Maj. Gen. Robert M. Littlejohn is resigning as war assets administrator Nov. 28.

The President said Deputy Administrator Jess Larson will take over Littlejohn's duties as acting head of the war assets administration which is to be liquidated by next June except for real property.

Mr. Truman said he could not say what job Dillon S. Myer will take when he leaves his present post as commissioner of the public housing authority. Myer, the President said, has not made up his mind what post he wants.

G.O.P. HEADS GET DEMANDS

Call for Anti-Inflation Program Received as Leaders Meet in Washington.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21—Republican leaders faced demands from their own ranks today for a G.O.P. anti-inflation program to counter President Truman's 10 proposals for checking the rising cost of living.

Two groups prepared to carry their fight to a closed-door meeting of all majority party senators several hours in advance of initial hearings by the senate-house economic committee on Mr. Truman's request for broad emergency powers to combat inflation at home while this country fights Communist advances in Europe with American goods and dollars.

Although Chairman Millikin (R-Colo) said he doubts any final decisions will be made by the Republican conference, blocs led by Senator Flanders of Vermont and Senator Capehart of Indiana planned to urge what both have called "positive" party action.

Flanders was expected to urge his colleagues to get behind a program calling for many of the same kind of curbs Mr. Truman suggested, including standby rationing authority, but not the club-in-the-closet price-wage control power he proposed.

Working from a different base, Senator Capehart (R-Ind) said he and several others would propose a program designed to increase farm and manufacturing production as a means of checking prices.

Capehart's proposal includes a provision to increase the straight-time work week from 40 to 44 hours, a contribution he contends labor ought to be willing to make if congress in return would hike present income tax exemptions from $500 a person to $1,000.

Although the Flanders and Capehart blocs apparently lacked majority support, there were indications that a Republican program would be drafted using some of their ideas but placing primary emphasis on a reduction in government expenses, a cut in taxes and payments on the national debt.

House Majority Leader Halleck (Ind) gave evidence of this line of thinking when he defined the Republican position for a New York audience last night in these words:

"By courageous, honest statesmanlike and careful action we should be able to meet our requirements abroad, provide all necessary governmental services and functions, begin the orderly liquidation of our national debt and also give the people much needed and well deserved tax relief, all to the accomplishment of our full strength and security, our peace, happiness and prosperity."

BLUM PICTURES FRENCH CRISIS

Warns Against Communism as He Prepares To Head Government.

By The Associated Press

PARIS, Nov. 21—Premier-Designate Leon Blum told the national assembly today "international communism has openly declared war on French democracy" and that "the republic is in danger" also from Gen Charles De Gaulle's right wing People's party.

"The situation is grave," the 75-year-old Socialist leader declared.

Blum sought assembly authority to form a government to replace that of Socialist Premier Paul Ramadier, who resigned Wednesday. As he spoke, a half million workers were on strike in critical industries throughout France and the labor situation hourly was growing worse.

Blum needs 310 votes out of 618. They will have to come from the center and other moderates.

He can count on opposition from the 179 Communists and 17 other left wingers who vote with them. The 72 De Gaullist deputies also were expected to vote against Blum.

Nominated by Auriol

Vincent Auriol, president of the republic, last night nominated the 75-year-old former Socialist premier to form a government of "public safety" succeeding the resigned Ramadier.

Ramadier resigned Wednesday after 10 months of economic and political struggles. Early in his tenure last May he threw out the Communists from his coalition cabinet.

The Communists issued a statement last night saying Ramadier's cabinet had "collapsed in shame and dishonor." They demanded the formation of a new "democratic government" in which "the working class and its Communist party could at last play a determining role."

Present negotiations for a new cabinet, the Communists said, were leading toward the submission of France to the potentates of the dollar and preparing the way for the would-be dictator, De Gaulle."

Labor Crisis Grows

Labor troubles grew more threatening. With 500,000 workers already called off their jobs by the Communist-dominated General Confederation of Labor (C.G.T.), the Marseille railroad workers struck last night.

France's school teachers were called off their jobs today. A strike of metal workers, which has taken 300,000 men from their jobs in the Paris region, was still spreading.

A strike of 105,000 coal miners was depleting France's scanty above-ground coal reserves.

Pheasant Hunting Season Near Close

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 21—The harried pheasants now scurrying away from hunters in Ohio fields got their annual reat tomorrow at 4 p. m.—legal deadline for shooting the birds.

Ohio hunters have, however, until Nov. 29 to bang away at ruffed grouse.

Grouse population, particularly in southeastern and eastern border counties of Ohio, said the Ohio division of conservation and natural resources has been increasing steadily for six or seven years.

For years now the division has conducted a grouse propagation program. The annual grouse kill in Ohio, however, is comparatively small—1,000 compared to Pennsylvania's 200,000.

Rabbit shooting in Ohio will continue through Dec. 15.

SLAYER OF KENTON WOMAN GETS CHAIR

By International News Service

BELLEFONTAINE, O., Nov. 21—Roger "Tug" Williams, 33, Indian lake handyman and house painter was sentenced today to die in the electric chair for the murder of Minta Webb Rothwell, 25, of Kenton.

The three-judge common pleas court that found Williams guilty of slaying his former housekeeper denied a motion for a new trial. The judges, convening in Bellefontaine, set the execution date for March 1.

Judges Elmer Godwin of Bellefontaine, Arthur Tudor of Kenton and Chester Pendleton of Findlay failed to recommend mercy when they convicted Williams of first-degree murder last week.

The state presented evidence that the handyman shot his former housekeeper twice last May 28 while she was working in an Indian Lake cafe.

NAVY PLANE FALLS INTO SEA; 11 ABOARD

By The United Press

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Nov. 21—A Navy P2V patrol plane with men aboard crashed in the ocean 100 miles off shore today, the 11th naval district reported. Two survivors were picked up later.

The craft, engaged in maneuvers, was near a submarine when it plummeted into the Pacific but the ship could find no sign of the wrecked plane.

Navy planes dropped flares and swept back and fourth over the crash site starting shortly after 3 a. m. The plane was based at Camp Miramar, near San Diego.

Names of missing crew members were withheld.

Yule Health Seal Campaign To Open

The annual Christmas health seal campaign will get under way in Marion county officially the first of next week when several thousand sheets of the stamp-like seals will be put into the mail by the Marion County Anti-Tuberculosis league.

Letters endorsing the nation-wide campaign, written by Phillip Murray and William Green, labor leaders, have been received here, Mrs. W. E. Miley, executive secretary of the local branch of the anti-tuberculosis organization, said today. In these communications, the public is urged to support the work of the organization through purchase of the seals. The Marion Junior Chamber of Commerce is handling publicity on the campaign here.

BODY OF MARION SOLDIER RETURNS

Funeral To Be Held Tuesday in St. Mary Church.

The casketed body of a Marion man, Cpl. Raymond C. Moll, 22, who was among the World War II dead returned to the United States from the European theater on Oct. 26 aboard the Army transport, Joseph V. Connolly, is scheduled to arrive in Marion at 4:18 p. m. Saturday.

The body is being brought here on the C. & O. railroad from Distribution Center No. 7 in Columbus. Upon arrival here, the body will be taken to the M. H. Gunder and Sons funeral home on West Center street. The honor guard accompanying the body will be T/4 Glenn F. Cole Jr.

Funeral services have been arranged to be conducted at 9:30 a. m. Tuesday in the St. Mary Catholic church by Very Rev. William J. Spickerman, V. F. Burial will be in St. Mary cemetery. Military services will be conducted by the American Legion. The body will be removed from the funeral home to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Moll of 258 Chestnut street, where friends may call after 2 o'clock Sunday.

Cpl. Moll an infantryman, was killed in action in Germany Nov. 17, 1944, and was buried in Belgium.

He was born May 23, 1922, in Marion to Charles H. Moll and Ina A. Zwilling Moll, both natives of Upper Sandusky. A resident of Marion all his life, he was a member of St. Mary Catholic church, the Holy Name Society, and the K. of C. He was graduated from St. Mary school in 1940 and before entering service was employed as an expediter at the Marion Power Shovel Co. plant.

Surviving with his parents is a sister Mrs. Helen Wilhelm of 195 Ella Mark street.

Railroad Strike Vote Results Due Dec. 15

By The United Press

CHICAGO, Nov. 21—The results of a strike ballot by three operating brotherhoods will be announced on Dec. 15, railroad union officials said today.

The officials also announced that federal mediation board members would start meetings Monday.

The three unions concerned are the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen and the Switchmen's Union of North America.

The unions issued a joint statement in which they charged that direct negotiations had become deadlocked when representatives of the Nation's railroads had failed to negotiate "seriously" on a request for major wage increases and rules changes.

Circus Jinx, Starting Here, Reaches Climax in Miami, Fla.

An accident jinx which struck Ringling Bros., Barnum and Bailey circus here when one of the performers was injured before the matinee on July 18, reached near tragic proportions Wednesday night in Miami, Fla., where three members of an aerial performing group suffered critical injuries during their act in that city.

Hilda Alzanas, 16, suffered serious back injuries and her brother, Harold, 31, suffered a fractured vertebrae when they fell 33 feet to the ground from a bicycle he was riding on a high wire during the show's final performance, an Associated Press dispatch reported. Their father, Charles Noah Alzanas, 65, watching from the ring below, dashed to the scene and tried to save them. He suffered a broken neck when he was felled by their hurtling bodies. He was credited by doctors with saving their lives. The girl suffered a more serious back injury than at first believed, the Jackson Memorial hospital reported. Her father's condition was reported as "fair."

Al Davis, 30, of Yorkshire, England, a member of the Alzanas family group, presenting the breath-taking aerial act, suffered a back injury in a 20-foot fall while testing the apparatus before his afternoon performance here. He was sliding to the ground when he became entanged in the rope, lost his grip and fell. The act, which climaxed the aerial and acrobatic acts, was staged just before the elephant act and included riding a bicycle on a tight wire, balancing and other daring feats. Davis' specialty was skipping rope on the wire and walking without the aid of a balancing pole. The act was put on here by the other three members of the troupe. The act was staged without a net.

Davis, who was taken to the Marion City hospital, was released at 8 p. m. the same day and joined the troupe in the performance of the act the following day at Columbus.

FARMER WOUNDED AS GUN DISCHARGES

Shotgun Falls from Tractor Used To Haul Corn.

Special to The Star

RICHWOOD, Nov. 21—Virgil Wynn, 50, of near Pharrisburg, six miles south of Richwood, was accidentally wounded in the left side by a shot from a gun this morning while helping a neighbor, L. T. White, to haul corn to the barn. He was driving a tractor to which the trailer, loaded with corn was attached and while driving through a gate from the corn field onto the road the gun which he had taken along slipped and discharged. Mr. White, who was with Mr. Wynn at the time, took him to the office of Dr. W. T. Drake in Richwood where he was treated. He was then removed to his home. Charles Davis, marshal at Richwood, who was called to the doctor's office, said Mr. Wynn had taken the gun along "hoping he might see a rabbit."

DR. GREETHAM SPEAKS AT PEARL STREET P.-T.A.

Dr. James S. Greetham was a guest speaker at a meeting of the Pearl Street P.-T. A. Tuesday afternoon at the school. His subject was "Visual Care of Children." The talk by Dr. Greetham and a musical program featured the meeting which will be the last until after the holiday season.

Mrs. Zelda Sweney, a member of the staff, conducted the devotions on the theme "Thanksgiving," and a group of second grade pupils recited the One-Hundredth Psalm. Mrs. Paul Emery and Mrs. Jules Kepling reported on the state convention held at Cincinnati recently and Miss Philomen Gregg, principal, reported more than 200 visits made by parents of the pupils during the observance of Education Week.

Julia Gorman entertained with a piano solo and a group of songs in keeping with the Thanksgiving season was given by first grade pupils taught by Miss Nellie Myers, accompanied at the piano by Anita Poter. An exercise, Propaganda for Peace," was presented by a group of sixth grade pupils directed by Miss Audrey Bolander. The first grade, taught by Miss Myers, received the attendance award.

MORRAL SERVICES

"The Cup of Thanksgiving" will be the subject of the sermon for morning worship at the Morral Methodist church Sunday, Rev. J. William Myers, pastor, announced. At evening worship, the message will be "The Parable of the Sower."

Future Farmers Chapters Compete in Pest Hunt

The Future Farmers of American chapters of Marion county including Pleasant, Meeker, Claridon, Prospect and LaRue are conducting a pest hunt contest that will continue from Nov. 1 to Jan. 5.

The main purpose of the pest hunt is to kill pests that destroy and damage grain that is badly needed.

The pests that are being killed include sparrows, mice, starlings, rats, pigeons, moles, crows weasels and foxes.

Every member in each chapter must bring in pests so the chapter will be eligible to win a placing. The four losing teams will entertain the winning team.

G.I. Post Auxiliary Drives for Members

A membership drive was launched by the Auxiliary to G.I. Post No. 584, American Legion, at a meeting Tuesday night in the post clubrooms. It will continue through Dec. 16 with Mrs. Francis D. Cook and Mrs. Peter Joyce as team captains.

One application for membership and one transfer were accepted. Guests for the social hour which followed were Mrs. Ben Swogger and Mrs. Inez Wingett, of T. P. Johnston Post of Mt. Gilead, and members of G.I. Post here. The next meeting of the auxiliary will be Dec. 2, and an executive board meeting will be held Nov. 24 with Mrs. John Midlam on Orchard street.

NATIONAL GRANGE GROUP AGAINST INCOME TAX CUT

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, Nov. 21—The National Grange's taxation committee is on record today as opposing general income tax reduction.

The committee in a report to the 81st annual Grange convention here said if a cut is made, it should be "in the direction of greatest reduction in the tax of the lower and middle-sized incomes."

The group also urged equality in federal income taxation among states having community property laws and those lacking them.

In the event of tax slashes, the committee recommended removal of federal automobile excise levies but took a stand against use of highway funds for non-highway purposes and against any general sales tax.

HERBERT SEES OHIO SURPLUS

Possibility of Higher Taxes Fades Following Speech Before C. of C.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 21—Revenue surpluses over expenditures both for the current and the next biennium appeared in prospect for Ohio today in the eyes of Gov. Thomas J. Herbert.

The possibility of new or increased taxes had faded as a result of the governor's speech last night before the 54th annual meeting of the Ohio Chamber of Commerce.

"It is my considered judgment," the state's chief executive told Chamber of Commerce members at a banquet, "That state revenue will exceed estimates and existing appropriations for the current biennium by a good margin.

"We should arrive at the end of this year with a surplus in excess of $25,000,000, all from this year's revenues."

Revenues from all principal tax sources except liquor gallonage and profits, Governor Herbert declared, have greatly increased. Gallonage and profits have not been reported.

"Barring unforeseen contingencies, I believe that the 1949-50 biennium will be as good as the present biennium."

The state's general revenue fund, the governor continued, is "by no means threatened with any deficit this year."

"The situation next year, in 1948, likewise looks good," he said. "It will largely depend, of course, upon economic conditions and particularly the price level. At this moment there are no signs on the horizon to indicate that revenues next year will decline from present levels."

Full effects of the veterans bonus and the anti-diversion of liquid fuel tax amendments, voted in the November election, are yet to be measured, the governor said.

"These amendments in themselves will not create a financial crisis either next year or in the next biennium if appropriate budgetary adjustments are made.

"It must be remembered, however, that these amendments mean a potential loss of $27,000,000 annually to the general revenue fund of the state," he continued.

Chamber members also heard Dr. Thomas Vernor Smith, University of Chicago philosophy professor, declare politics necessary as a means of handling matters on which there is disagreement. Politics, Dr. Smith said, is learning "how to cooperate without having to kiss."

Ohio G.O.P. Leaders Conferring with Taft

By The United Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21—Fred H. Johnson, Ohio state Republican chairman, and Ohio State Treasurer Don Ebright arrived here today for a series of conferences with Sen. Robert A. Taft, (R) of Ohio, and Rep. Clarence J. Brown, (R) of Ohio, on Taft's campaign for the 1948 Republican presidential nomination.

Johnson said the general situation in connection with Taft's campaign would be discussed. He said there would be no talk of a slate of delegates nor the selection of a second choice to Taft.

Brown is acting as Taft's campaign manager.

WILL APPEAL RENT RULING

Housing Officials Plan Fight on Decision That Control Is Unconstitutional.

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 21 — Housing officials said today they would recommend immediate appeal of a U. S. district court decision holding rent controls unconstitutional in a peacetime economy.

And in Washington, Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) said he doubted the ruling would alter congressional plans to consider extending rent ceilings beyond the present Feb. 29, 1948, expiration date.

In ruling yesterday that the housing and rent act of 1947 is unconstitutional, Judge Paul Jones made these points:

1. The President's proclamation of the termination of hostilities signed last Dec. 31. This Jones said, inaugurated a "peace in fact" and the act "is not by any expressed words or implied provisions tied up with any war powers of congress."

2. The act speaks of an emergency without defining it and gives no indication of continuing the exercise of war powers residing in its constitutional prerogatives.

3. "To impose federal restrictions upon the free use of the defendants' property is as effective a taking as to condemn it."

"This is new legislation with no plausible constitutional basis for its validity," wrote Judge Jones, adding:

"How can it be asserted that there is a single clause in the federal Constitution, plausibly interpreted, that gives the government the right to regulate local rents in peacetime?

"If local rent control and regulation are to be continued until what are asserted to be the evil effects of the war shall have passed away, there is no hope of an early restoration of the constitutional rights of these defendants."

The statement that Jones' decision would be recommended for appeal came from Paul Marshall, chief of the litigation unit in the Cleveland regional office of the housing expeditor.

Marshall said the rent control law had been upheld in two previous decisions by federal district court judges at Lincoln, Neb., and Denver, Colo.

The specific case that prompted Judge Jones' decision was that of Clyd W. Miller, owner of an apartment in Cleveland Heights. Jones dissolved a preliminary injunction restraining Miller from raising rents 40 to 60 per cent.

Labor Dispute Slows Up Papers at Chicago

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Nov. 21—Publication of Chicago's two morning newspapers, The Tribune and The Sun, was delayed for nearly eight hours last night and today because of a labor dispute.

The papers said the delay in publishing their Friday editions was because of slowdowns of composing room employes, shop meetings and conferences between printers and management.

The first editions of the two papers, which normally are on sale at newsstands about 6:30 p. m., were not available until about 3 a. m., about an hour after the meetings and conferences broke up. Both papers missed three editions.

The Sun, which at 1:15 a. m. said its composing room employes had been attending a union meeting which had lasted more than six hours, said it regarded "action of the Typographical union as a strike."

A statement at that time by The Sun and Times—both papers use the same facilities and are owned or controlled by Marshall Field—said composing room employes had refused to end their chapel meeting "of several hours duration."

"No wages will be paid to any employe who remains in the composing room and does no work," the statement said.

CROP LOSSES HIGH

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Nov. 21 — Ohio farm losses on seven crops amount to $90,000,000 annually due to plant pests and disease, says Dr. H. C. Young, head pathologist of the Wooster experiment station. And those losses, he told the Ohio Pesticide Institute at its first annual meeting, "are just a drop in the bucket to those of the nation." He listed the Ohio crop as wheat, corn, oats, apples, peaches, potatoes and tomatoes.

KIRKPATRICK SERVICE

A union Thanksgiving service of the Kirkpatrick Church of Christ and the Kirkpatrick Methodist church will be held Sunday at 7:45 p. m. at the Church of Christ. Rev. R. F. Strickler is host pastor, and will give a Thanksgiving message. Special music will be by members of the Methodist congregation.

MRS. IHDE SPEAKS ON "GREAT DRAMA OF LIFE"

"The Great Drama of Life" in three acts was given by Mrs. Irene M. Ihde of Paterson, N. J., in her message last night at Prospect Street Methodist church in another of the series of Christian Fellowship week services being conducted three.

Mrs. Ihde, who before the service each night plays an organ composition, last night repeated on request the "Poet and Peasant" overture which she played earlier in the week.

Special music was by the male chorus of Prospect Street Methodist church composed of Bernard Brooks, Warren Seiter, Albert Bechtle, Robert Rice, Robert Withrow, Carlton Schmidt and William Holloway, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Robert Rice. Their numbers were "Where My Savior Leads I'll Follow" and "I'll Be Listening." The Scripture was read by Miss Ruth Schott.

To open her service, Mrs. Ihde gave a musical reading of the poem, "My Lord and I," to music of her own composition. She was accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Rice. During her service, she played on the piano Rachmaninoff's "Prelude in C Sharp Minor" to which she gave the 91st Psalm.

Tonight, Mrs. Ihde will talk on "Can God Be All Loving and Omnipotent at the Same Time," and before the service will play "The Storm" from the "William Tell" overture.

Here Lies Laval

IT IS still easy to reconstruct the revulsion that cast Pierre Laval, Vichy premier of France, in the role of traitor to his country. The little politician's memoirs, to be published early next year, shows why. In them, Laval explains his purpose in collaborating with the Germans was not collaboration at all, but an adjustment he made at great personal sacrifice for the preservation of France.

"Suppose the Germans had been the first to invent the atomic bomb," he wrote while awaiting his fate at the hands of the Germans. (He later was executed by his own countrymen). "If they had won the war instead of losing it, with what then could I be reproached?"

The answer is simple. Laval could be reproached with the cardinal sin of politicians—the desire to be on the winning side at any cost. Either he believed in Hitlerism, or he didn't believe in it. If he didn't believe in it, he was obligated by his allegiance to France to resist the German occupation of his country. If Germany had won the war and Laval had become a German puppet, he would be as despised by men of honor today as he is despised for having gambled on the wrong country. There can be no extenuating circumstances in the crime of treachery

Open Season

FROM scattered districts come reports indicating hunters are becoming more numerous and more aggressive—or perhaps, in some instances, foolhardy would be a better word.

A Rockland county, N. Y., official says the nearby Ramapo hills are so full of hair-trigger Harrys that the first flash of fur or crackling twig attracts a volley. A prize dog out for a romp in a nearby woods was brought down before he had gone very far.

Duck hunters have been out in numbers rarely seen before. When the Canadian deer season opened, some cars waited as long as 20 hours for ferry transportation at Sault Ste. Marie.

In the suburbs of an Ohio city, a new resident is appalled at the number of hunters tramping through his back yard. He says it's enough to make a suburbanite gun-shy and is considering striking a deal with a printer for signs reading "Land Mines—Advance at Own Risk," "Fortified Area—Keep Out," "Communicable Disease" and "Beware of the Mastiff."

The Baby and The Bath

ERIC JOHNSTON, the clear-headed president of Motion Picture Association of America, has pepped up the Hollywood Red investigation by saying publicly the 10 witnesses who refused to testify last month before the house committee on un-American affairs were all wrong.

We hope the rest of what he said also will be noticed. He repeated what he had said before—that the motion picture industry resented the Red smear; that management is responsible for what goes on the screen, not government; that hysteria which threatens free speech in America is more to be feared than a few people suspected of being stooges for the Kremlin. Mr. Johnston then pointed to something else—a demand for federal censorship of motion pictures by an influential newspaper publisher apparently unaware that "If the motion picture is to be censored, the newspaper must be too—and the books—and the magazines and the radio."

He said free speech can't be shut into compartments, one compartment for movies, one for radio, one for newspapers, one for magazines. These things are obvious to Mr. Johnston, obvious to everybody who tries to see the relationship between what is expressed on film, what is expressed on paper and what is expressed by radio. But they are not obvious to the people who would throw out the baby with the bath—who would endanger an inalienable right of the sovereign people in their anxiety to bag a few Commies. There is still a job for education to be done there.

Year of Disaster

THIS has been a year of unprecedented disasters. In the Mississippi valley there were floods; hurricanes and tornadoes have swept wide areas; explosions virtually blew Texas City off the map; forest fires raged over Maine.

Substantial amounts of the property damage were covered by insurance. Texas City policyholders have filed $32,000,000 in claims; in Maine insurance companies set up special offices for adjusters. Many a company is going to have to dig into its reserves to meet this year's payments.

Unlike life insurance, property insurance is based on more or less unpredictable factors, and this has been an unfortunate year. The result will be an increase in premiums to replenish treasuries hit by this year's disasters. When a forest fire sweeps Maine or an explosion levels Texas City, it affects us all indirectly.

Automobile policies comprise another form of property insurance which is going up, up, up, up. Unlike disaster insurance, however, it is moving in a predictable pattern. The longer it takes drivers to learn the cost of recklessness the more they will pay for insurance, a factor that should be stressed more in safety campaigns.

Scanning the Record

By George E. Sokolsky

An Unclean House in Hollywood.

THE Hollywood moguls are faced by four considerations:

1. Many men of talent, openly Communist or suspected of Communist or fellow-traveler connections, cannot be dismissed without considerable financial loss; in a strict business sense, these "talents" represent capital investments;

2. Should they dismiss men or women with some accusation of Communist affiliations, they might encounter expensive lawsuits, particularly as some judges who may know law but lack common sense have restricted the use of the appellation beyond all reason;

SOKOLSKY

3. One studio might wipe away the breed only to find that some other studio hires the fellow upon whom millions have already been spent in advertising and build-up;

4. They have to do something to overcome an unfavorable public opinion which is beginning to show in the financial statements.

James M. Cain, who sponsored the writers authority and who is on the executive board of the Screen Writers Guild has faced this problem with complete frankness. He brushes aside the personal attacks on those who have criticized the Communists in Hollywood in the following clear statement:

". . . Phonies or not, these gentlemen say we are loaded with Communists, and whether we like it or not, this charge is true. As we are now constituted, the party line is more important to certain members commanding a majority of the executive board than the interests of the membership, and leftist propaganda more important to the 'screen writer' than material of interest to writers."

Deals With Election

His circular was issued in support of Sheridan Gibney as head of the Screen Writers Guild. The election will take place, I understand, before this column can appear, but from the standpoint of public interest, it is important to note that some writers have more courage than most management—and such writers take greater risks as they have more to lose. Cain says:

". . . And it (selecting a new board) is the only way the guild can recapture confidence. For let me make this clear: if the Moscow road has left many writers without confidence in the guild, so they wouldn't trust it with copyrights or anything else. I am one of them.

"We can only enjoy confidence by earning it. And no confidence will ever be earned by compelling the many to accept, and pay for convictions held by the few."

Propaganda Out of Place

Hollywood is in the entertainment business. It should not be in the business of propaganda for anybody, even for the government of the United States. If the government has propaganda to do, it should do its own, at its own expense. Certainly, the buyer of a ticket to a movie wants entertainment, not a trickily arranged barrage upon the mind of the purchaser. If a man pays for something, he is entitled to get what he pays for, not for a masquerade of what he wants, with an intellectual gimmick thrown in. That is crooked. It is false pretense.

It is also not only a question of pictures. Hollywood spends millions of dollars building reputations. Some of the actors, writers, etc., are worthy persons in the sense that they possess skills in their vocations. Others are not. They are voices, mannerisms, figures, mannikins directed in detail, incapable themselves of articulating an emotion. For one reason or another, they have become box-office. They have been built into a synthetic reputation. So it is with writers, music writers and others, some of whom are capable but others have acquired little knacks valuable to pictures but making them neither students of politics, of history, of sociology, of philosophy, of anything except their little knacks.

Artificial Build-Ups

Yet, because of the millions spent to build the box-office value of their names—often even their names are selected by management to facilitate box-office attractiveness—these personalities become a front for wickedly subversive organizations. Their names and faces, widely advertised, synthetically made important to attract to them innocent persons to associate not with the movie folks but with the horrible agents of alien governments. That is the real danger in Hollywood. And that house has to be cleaned by its inhabitants, or having become a pest, it will have to be cleaned by someone else.

Not Now, Maybe
But It's Sure To Come

Republicans have agreed not to bring up the question of tax reduction at the current special session of congress.

Statesmanship and the need for a non-partisan approach to the problem of European relief demand that it be postponed until next year. Besides, it's smarter politics.

A tax cut in the hand isn't worth half as much as one on the stump.

It's only natural that congress should take up Europe's case before the taxpayer's. The latter isn't starving . . . yet.

If I had my way, congress would have to stand for reelection every year on March 15. That way, the average gent would pay more attention and less taxes to the government

At any rate, don't get discouraged at the news there won't be any tax relief at this session. Congress hasn't adjourned politics . . . merely postponed it.

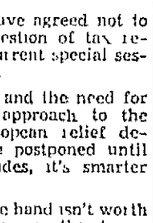
Luckman's on Detour

By Frank Tripp

THE idea is all right and it's just because I'm a dyed-in-the-wool newspaperman that I poke fun at it. It has to do with how you get word to the people if you want to tell them something. Charlie Luckman's new scheme inspired it.

Charlie is the soap salesman who was betrayed by the chickens—those with feathers. They kept on taking in grain at one end and pushing out eggs at the other. Thursday resumed its normal status as the cook's day off.

Charlie couldn't get word to the hens. The dumb clucks don't listen to his soap operas nor read much.



TRIPP

But Charlie got even. Any hen that doesn't do a good day's work will get its head cut off; an annoying arrangement from the standpoint of the hen. All because Charlie couldn't get word to them.

The experience should teach Charlie that you can't always play something on a fiddle, weep a tear-jerker into the ether and get what you want.

In spite of that it looks like it will take Charlie quite a while to come around to the direct route of communication with chickens—the unfeathered ones, this time. He's still sticking to detours.

Charlie has appointed Katherine Fisher, chief of Good Housekeeping Magazine Institute, "to protect the health and pocketbook of every American." That's swell. My health is good but my pocketbook sure needs Katherine.

* * *

Charlie goes on, "The full resources of government, industry and the national magazines are being pulled together in one concerted effort to help the home makers in the face of rising food prices."

All this good news comes in an impressive announcement. Way down in the 10th paragraph is revealed how it's to be done—"by daily 'peace plate' menus providing a balanced diet at lower cost."

Miss Fisher knows her menus and all of the magazine boys are swell eggs and loyal patriots. They always do their part. I congratulate them that at long last they get some measure of credit atop the soap operas, and from the impresario himself. It never happened to us.

But Charlie, how can you possibly do it? Won't there be some awful changes between magazine closing dates and "daily menus?" There are on my grocery bill.

Gee, I should think you'd need to get daily menus, crazy prices and shortages to the people faster and more often; change things sort of overnight maybe—like you did about the chickens.

* * *

Isn't it just like a newspaperman to get his neck way out. I'm sorry, Charlie; shouldn't have been so hasty. I hadn't read the 11th paragraph. My mistake, forgive me. I see, way down at the end, that you've got it all thought out.

I find you say, "The food editors of several leading women's magazines . . . will get their ideas to housewives mostly through newspapers and individual grocers."

That's just what I was going to suggest.

One Man's Opinion

By WALTER KIERNAN

It appears definite that the UN general assembly will go to Europe for its 1948 session. This should allay any fears that Europe won't be there another year.

* * *

However, we are not surprised . . . Many visitors to New York say, "it's a nice town to visit but I wouldn't live there if you gave me the place."

* * *

The only surprise is that Philadelphia didn't bid for that convention too . . . and get some REAL excitement.

* * *

But the delegates promise to return by 1950 when their permanent peace headquarters should be ready . . . Even a temporary peace should be ready by then.

* * *

No one knows exactly where the UN will go but the host country will be expected to provide provision, personnel and pickets.

* * *

Our attitude should be one of unselfishness . . . We have had Vishinsky and Gromyko to ourselves too long.

Warren as a Candidate

By Raymond Moley

THERE is much more than meets the eye in Governor Earl Warren's announced candidacy for the support of California for the Republican presidential nomination.

His announcement is simple. He will permit the formation of a delegation from his state to present his name for the nomination. This means that he will appear as a candidate for the preference to be expressed at the primary. He will make no speeches in other states to seek support and he will not form an organization to seek votes elsewhere. If Republican leaders in other states try to commit their states to him, he "will meet every situation as it presents itself." He does not want the vice presidential nomination. It will be recalled that he rejected an opportunity in 1944 to run with Dewey. And a further fact is that he resents efforts to tie him to any candidate's kite.

MOLEY

An interpretation of Warren's announcement requires a knowledge of California's thinking and of the essential character of Warren himself. California has had no candidate since Herbert Hoover. It was however, active in the years before Hoover's first nomination, in 1928. In 1924, in the Democratic convention in New York, California fought almost to the death for W. G. McAdoo. In 1920, its Republican favorite was Hiram Johnson.

Big And Dissatisfied

Meanwhile, the state has been growing at an enormous rate. It is conscious of its importance and has not been satisfied with its recognition in party affairs and in the national administration. Warren's candidacy makes California exceedingly important in next year's Republican convention. In Warren it has a candidate who is thoroughly qualified and who might well be the choice in the event of a deadlock between Dewey and Taft.

Californians in general and Warren in particular do not want their state to be considered hunting ground by other candidates. There have been rumors to the effect that other candidates might consider entering the California primary. The Warren announcement puts an end to such calculations. No candidate would stand a chance to beat Warren in the primary, and no candidate would risk antagonizing Warren, in any event. The 53 California votes in the convention will be eagerly coveted by every other candidate in the event of Warren's withdrawal after a few ballots.

Friendly With All

Moreover, Warren has maintained the best of relations with Dewey, Taft, Stassen, Saltonstall, Baldwin of Connecticut and others. Those who have been governors have known him intimately at governors' conferences. They all like and admire him. He has made no important political enemies outside his state. Hence, he might well be a popular compromise choice.

For many months Warren has held his own counsel about his decision, although it has for some time been clear that he wants control of the delegation. He is a man not easily moved. He takes plenty of time to think things over. Needless to say, his supporters in California are overjoyed by his decision, which permits them to make plans within the specifications of his announcement. They will be active in the convention, and judging from a rather extensive acquaintance with them, I am sure Warren's fortunes will be skillfully and forcefully managed.

I found, in the course of a trip through the coast states last summer, a general feeling of preference for Warren. He may well have several of the states west of the Rockies in his corner when the convention meets, despite his resolution to seek no support outside California. The Warren candidacy from here on must be taken very seriously.

Ample Gasoline

Natural gas and coal will provide the nation with high-grade gasoline for hundreds of years after petroleum reserves have been exhausted, the American Institute of Chemical Engineers was told at its annual convention in Detroit.

James R. Latta and Scott W. Walker of the Stanolind Oil & Gas Co. of Tulsa, Okla., submitted a report which said the nation's great supplies of gas and coal would provide an abundant source of cheap synthetic gasoline in addition to diesel fuels and valuable chemical as byproducts.

Dr. H. H. Storch, chief of the synthetic liquid fuels research and development division of the Bureau of Mines, said American industry was planning several plants for production of synthetic gasoline and that one at Brownsville, Tex., would yield 8,000 barrels a day.

"Perhaps the most convincing evidence of its importance is the current interest of major oil companies in processing coal for the production of mixtures of hydrogen and carbon monoxide. This is now in the stage of active experimental and pilot plant work," he said.

The Wrecking of the New Mexico

("The U.S.S. Battleship New Mexico, whose name is the name of a junkman on her plates, found herself excluded from Newark when it was decided there to be broken up."—News item).

It was the ship New Mexico
She'd fought in battles stout
And now, come home, her greeting was
A firm and flat "Keep out"

She'd fought the German and the Jap
For all our land held dear
To find herself a vagrant to
The tune "Not wanted here."

"What is this odd inscription on
My sides?" the old gal cries;
"My name was never 'Lipsett'...
What do I now advertise?"

"Hush kid," the answer comes to her
"This Lipsett is a Joe
Who is a special list of junk—
And wants the world to know!"

"Oh desecration, where's thy sting?"
The gallant ship doth pine,
"Now am I made by pot and paint
An advertising sign!"

"Say, does the Navy know of this?
Is it not quite enough
That I be sold to junkman, must
I advertise his stuff?"

* * *

"Oh woe is me," the old gal weeps,
"My shame is deep and sad;
Unwanted in a city stream
And lettered like an 'ad'!

"Why could I have no peaceful grave
No honored resting place
To die as one who kept the faith
And ran a valiant race?

"Has ever a ship been so disgraced—
Her name in headlines tall,
To spread abroad her lowly end
In city junkman brawl?"

* * *

The salt sea froze upon her breast,
The salt tears wet her eyes
And from the Land of Unconcern
A hollow voice replies:

"This is a screwball age, my gal;
All sense of right and wrong
Is twisted out of proper shape—
Forget it and be strong!

"In war we toast and praise and sing
A ship for foes she's sunk;
But when the shooting does away
Well, sister, junk is junk."

* * *

"Okay," the old gal sadly says,
"So be it, but it hurts....
You say this land loves gallant ships"
My one last word is "Nerts!"

Storm Windows

By Truman Twill

This is the time of the year when it's a good idea to keep on hand a supply of literature about storm windows. It should be read before and after each encounter.

See how the man in the picture does the whole thing with one hand tied behind him. Notice that he is smiling. How pretty his teeth are—all of them. Get a load of that hair—nothing out of place. And the slick cut of that suit; it must be a brand new one—just the thing for storm window work.

The man's wife is having a fine time helping him put in the storm windows. What pretty teeth she has! Obviously a jolly type of woman, always cracking jokes and cutting capers. She seems to be suggesting to her lover-boy that he should let her put in the storm windows because it is so much fun. Ah joy, ah sweet ecstasy, ah sweet patootie.

The scene shifts from what never was to what is. The man is not in the picture now, and he does not have one hand tied behind him. Both hands are full. And he is not smiling. Those teeth you see can be blamed on a grimace of extreme pain. The man has just pinched his finger until it is black and blue.

His hair, if he had any, would be hanging in his eyes. In the absence of hair what is in his eyes is perspiration mixed with blood from a gash on his forehead, the result of straightening up without checking for clearance, the dumb * * *. His trouser pocket has just caught on a protruding nail and is ripped down to his shin. He has ruined a perfectly good shirt and what he has to say about the whole * * * mess in a few dozen well-chosen words is * * *.

The pretty teeth his missus is showing are being revealed in a snarl, because she objects to talk like that in front of the children, she doesn't understand why he cannot do anything about the house without losing his temper, look what he has done to the carpet, also to the wallpaper with his dirty hands, and if she could do the job herself she would pay him to stay away because he always makes a botch of it and what she has to suggest to her lover boy is why doesn't he drop dead, the clumsy baboon!

As we said at the beginning, this is the time of the year to re-read that flossy literature about the storm windows—what they will do and how simply and easily they will do it. It all sounded so nice in the literature. The salesman made it sound so good. Anyone ever see that guy around any more, or did some patriot finally shove him into an old cistern, literature, sales talk and all?

Social Affairs

SOCIAL meetings held each Thursday throughout the summer and fall by women members of the Marion Country club came to a close for the season yesterday with a luncheon and bridge. Luncheon was followed by an afternoon of bridge, awards going to Mrs. John Dowler, Mrs. Harry Snauffer, Mrs. D. L. Hooper, Mrs. Roy Mullett and Mrs. J. B. Bray.

"THE NATIVE AMERICAN" was the program theme for a meeting of Quest club last evening at the Federation Home with Mrs. W. T. Buchanan and Miss Effie Oliphant as hostesses. Miss Sophia Mack presented "The American Indian in Music and Poetry," assisted at the piano by Miss Helen Atchinson and Miss Oliphant discussed "The American Indian in Legend." "The American Indian in Art" by Mrs. Merle Hughes concluded the program. During a business session plans were discussed for a Christmas party and gift exchange Dec. 18.

Plans were made for an annual Christmas dinner meeting to be held Dec. 19 at Ringer's Inn when the L. S. D. club met recently with Mrs. Stanley Thompson of 684 East Church street. The evening was spent in playing bridge with high honors going to Mrs. Cloise Newlove, galloping to Mrs. George Wingett, and consolation to Mrs. Burdette Jones.

The first party of the year was held by the Marion Business College Tuesday evening at the home of one of the instructors., Mrs. A. H. Koons of 304 South High street. Thirty-five persons were present from Marion and surrounding towns. A highlight of the evening was a scavenger hunt, after which refreshments were served.

Plans for the affair were in charge of the instructors, Mrs. Koons, J. T. Bargar and C. Raymond Smith, assisted by Miss Donna Walter of Wharton, Miss Norma Crisler of Rushsylvania, Miss Marcile Schifer of Bucyrus, Donald Reynolds of Greenwich and Lewis Cunningham of Marion, on the recreation committee, and Miss Ruth Little of Mt. Gilead. Miss Ruth Bevier of Shelby and Luther Eppley of Bloomville on the refreshment committee.

The next party is to be held some time in December.

Relatives and friends were guests Wednesday at the E. L. Price home at 266 Pearl street for celebration of the first birthday anniversary of Suzanne Baker, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Price. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Baker of Galion and with her mother has been visiting at the Price home. Among 18 present for the celebration were the father and paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Baker of Galion.

Mrs. Frank Eberl was elected president at a meeting of the Pleasant Township Farm Women's club Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Clarence Keil on the Claridon pike. Mrs. Jacob Bollinger was an associate hostess. Mrs. Grover Lichtenberger was elected vice president, Mrs. J. P. Elchorn, secretary, Mrs. Gordon Elchorn, treasurer, Mrs. Wilbur Budke, chorister, Mrs. Harry Hoch, pianist and Mrs. Bollinger, reporter. The program and business session was preceded by a dessert luncheon. Mrs. Gordon Eichorn conducted the devotions following a song by the group and for roll call the members gave thoughts for Thanksgiving. Plans were made to arrange a box for European aid. A story, "What Are We Most Thankful For?" was given by Mrs. Lawrence Mautz and Mrs. Byron Rice read a story, "In a Chinese Garden." In a scrambled "grocery" contest awards were won by Mrs. S. B. Stowe, Mrs. Byron Rice and Mrs. Eberl. Guests were Mrs. William Ulmer, Mrs. R. H. Reidenbaugh, Mrs. C. O. Barnthouse, Victor Tron, Susa Kay Elchorn and Charles Groll. A luncheon and Christmas party will be held Dec. 18 at Ringer's Inn at which time the members will fill a basket for a less fortunate family

Mrs. Carl Uncapher was a guest at a meeting of the Friendship Euchre club Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Jessie Beeman on Irey avenue. Awards were won by Mrs. Howard Rizor and Mrs. Fred Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth J. Armbruster of Caledonia, former residents of Marion, are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Margaret Ann, to John Frederick Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil E. Price of 206 Carhart street. The wedding will be an event of Dec. 15 and will take place at 7:30 o'clock in the evening in the rectory of the St. Mary Catholic church.

Miss Armbruster, a graduate of St. Mary High school with the class of 1947, is employed in the office of the Sears, Roebuck and Co store here. Her fiance, a graduate of Harding High school with the class of 1945, served with the U. S. Navy in World War II and is now employed as a meat cutter at the City Ice and Fuel Co. plant.

A social meeting was held by members of Alpha chapter, Gradale sorority, Wednesday evening in the club rooms at the Y.M.C.A. Bridge was played with honors going to Miss Elizabeth Ballenger, Mrs. Harold Henry and Mrs. William Oldaker. Hostesses for the evening were new members of the chapter who were taken in recently, Mrs. Gerald Maynard, Mrs. Olin Flickinger, Mrs. Howard Gilbert, Mrs. Robert Romoser and Misses Joan and Josephine Judy

A talk on X-ray was given by Dr. A. E. Morrison at a meeting of Gamma Mu chapter, Delta Theta Tau sorority Wednesday evening in his office at 344 East Center street. Mrs. Sherman Haldeman was named chairman in charge of arranging baskets for a needy family for Thanksgiving and plans were completed for the annual Christmas party to be held Dec. 16, at Hotel Harding. Mrs. Jack Bray will serve as chairman of the social committee. A meeting Dec. 2 will be held in the Elks' clubrooms.

Mrs. Wayne Jenkins reviewed "The Buckeye Country," by Harlan Hatcher at a meeting of the Literature Study club Wednesday evening. Mrs. J. C. Chaney was hostess for the meeting at the Federation Home. During the evening a sale of articles made by the blind of the state was held. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. A. L. Loeb of Mt. Vernon avenue when Mrs. Everett Grigsby will be a guest speaker and will give a book review.

Mrs. Stella Purcell was elected president and Mrs. Marjorie Purcell, treasurer of the Iala club at a meeting Wednesday evening with Mrs. Winnie Bosh of 310 Blaine avenue. Refreshments were served in keeping with the Thanksgiving theme. Prizes in contests went to Miss Jennie Rizzo and Mrs. Virginia Weist.

Mrs. Ruth Whetro of 340 Chestnut street entertained Wednesday evening in her home with a party celebrating the fifteenth birthday anniversary of her son, Robert Lowry. Awards in contests went to Regina Cleveland and Donny DeLauder. Mrs. Emmett Huntsman, Ruth Lowry and Alice Bridges assisted in serving. Present also were Sammy Delong, Alfred Doss, Ronald Jerew, Jack Obenour, Dee Pierce, George Kasota, Roger Williams, Barbara Clemmings, Bonnie Sneck, Joan Hofstettler, Larry Wells, Michael Anderson, Larry Cross, Charles Adams and Emmett Huntsman.

Mrs. C. F. Swaney was hostess for a meeting of the All Arts club of Prospect Monday evening at her home in Prospect. Miss Dorothy Horn presided, and Mrs Eugene Kimmell conducted devotions on the theme, "And Be Ye Thankful." Twenty-one members responded to roll call. The group decided to omit a Christmas gift exchange this year and plans were made for each member to contribute fifty cents for the purpose of purchasing a "Care Box" to be sent to a needy family in Europe. Plans were announced for a bake sale Dec. 6.

For the program in charge of Mrs. Edward Lauer, Mrs Clarence Wilcox read a paper on "The Romance of Glass" and displayed several articles of Steuben glass. Thanksgiving hymns led by Mrs. Wilfred Knickel were sung by the group, with Mrs. E. E. Wottring at the piano. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Emery Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Toms and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Cadem and daughter, Kathleen of Washington, D. C. and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McClurg of Portsmouth are guests of Mrs A. C. Vogt and family of 804 Sheridan road.

PRINCESS LIKES HAT—In London for the wedding festivities, Mrs. Louise Guerrieri, a Washington, D. C., seamstress, wears home-made hat which caught the royal eye and gained her an introduction to Queen Elizabeth and Princess Elizabeth. Mrs. Guerrieri was invited to London after sending a dress to Princess Elizabeth.

A Christmas gift exchange will be held at the next meeting, Dec. 17, with Mrs. Lashey on Harding Highway E.

Parish, Mercer Ceremony Read At Church Here

MISS DONNA PARISH, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Parish of 317 Nye street, become the bride Sunday of Jack Mercer, son of Mrs. Hazel Mercer of Morral. The couple repeated their vows at 3:30 p. m. before the altar of Emmanuel Baptist church. Bouquets of white chrysanthemums and palms formed a background for lighted candles in two seven-branch candelabra. Dr. C. E. Hershey, pastor, officiated for the double ring ceremony.

A program of nuptial music by Paul Watts of Mansfield, vocalist, and Mrs. Watts, pianist, preceded the ceremony. Selections by Mrs. Watts included "Salut d'Amour," Elgar; "Clair de Lune," Debussy; "I Love Thee," Grieg; and the "Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin," Wagner, and "Wedding March," Mendelssohn. Mr. Watts sang "I Love You Truly," Bond; "Of Promise Me," DeKoven; "At Dawning," Cadman; and "Because," D'Hardelot.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a gown of white slipper satin styled with a tight-fitting bodice. Self covered buttons extended down the back to the waist, and the round high neckline was trimmed with tiny seed pearls. The tight-fitting sleeves were trimmed in pearls and ended in points over the hands. The full skirt extended into a long train, and the Juliet style fingertip veil had a crown of white braided crepe and satin with side loops. For something old, the bride carried a white linen lace trimmed handkerchief belonging to Mrs Dan Tatman, a friend, which she had carried at her own wedding. Pink and white rosebuds tied with white satin ribbon formed the bridal bouquet.

Miss Mary Hammon, maid of honor, Mrs. George Parish of Richwood, sister-in-law of the bride, bride's matron, and Miss Virginia Creasap, bridesmaid, were dressed alike. They wore pink moire taffeta gowns fashioned with cap sleeves.

Lighting the candles were Carol Rae Thompson of Cardington and Marlene Little, dressed in white moire taffeta gowns off-the-shoulder in style. Carolyn Lee Ferone of Cincinnati, second cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Darrel Parish of Richwood, bride's nephew, was ring bearer.

Wayne McWherter of Mansfield served as best man, and ushers were George Parish of Richwood, brother of the bride, and Carl Freshour of Morral. Gifts of the bridegroom to his best man and the ushers were cigaret lighters, and to the ring bearer, a wrist watch.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Parish chose a powder blue dress with which she combined black accessories. Mrs. Mercer, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in a wine color dress and wore black accessories. Each wore a corsage of gardenias.

A reception at the Parish home followed the ceremony. Centering the table was a three-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Serving were Mrs. Robert Riddle, Mrs. James Tanner, Mrs. Clyde Barnhard, Mrs Frank Parish of Toledo, Mrs. Merle McKim, and Mrs. Tatman.

When the couple left on a wedding trip to Wisconsin, the bride was wearing a black wool suit with wine color accessories. On their return, they will reside in Mansfield.

Mrs. Mercer was graduated from Harding High school in 1940 and from Mercy hospital nursing school in Hamilton in 1943. She was in service 18 months as an army nurse, and has been employed here as nurse at the Marion Power Shovel Co. Her husband attended Morral High school and was in service four years in Europe. He is an employe of Westinghouse in Mansfield.

Out-of-town guests at the ceremony included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ferone and Donald Davis, all of Cincinnati, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Purdy of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mercer and Mrs. Mathilda Mercer, all of Dayton, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Mercer of Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Myers of Upper Sandusky, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Black of Ashland, Mrs. Spencer Kerr of Richwood, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Sloat, Paul Sloat, Mrs. Carl Freshour and Carroll Reese, all of Morral, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schnittke and William Russell, all of Mansfield, Mrs. Edward Thompson of Glenwillard, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Baker of Cardington.

CARELESS COUNTING BLAMED AT GALION

Special to The Star

GALION, Nov. 21—A spokesman for the Crawford county board of elections today laid to carelessness a mistake in tabulation of votes in the Galion municipal election that resulted in reelection of a ward councilman who in a recount was found to have been defeated by 89 votes.

A recount made this week by the election board revealed that incumbent Third ward councilman, Richard L. Ganshorn (D) who had previously been announced as reelected by a margin of seven votes over John A. Anker (R) had actually been defeated by 89 votes.

The recount in the two ward precincts gave Anker 404 votes against Ganshorns 315. The previous count was given as 365 against 320. Most of the change was reported in the records of precinct A where the vote count was not completed until 2 a. m.

A late vote and one of the heaviest in years was said by the election board to have caused much confusion in the precincts during the election.

Election of Ankers to council gives the G.O.P. a majority for the first time in 23 years with four Republicans taking office Jan. 1.

The third ward seat was hotly contested during the election campaign. Ganshorn, operator of a restaurant near the Erie depot is completing his sixth term as councilman and has been a leading supporter of the move to purchase a diesel generating unit for the Galion Municipal Light and Power plant.

About 9.5 per cent or 8,500,000 acres of the total land area of California is under cultivation.

CARDINAL SETS BOYCOTT OF 'FOREVER AMBER' SHOW

By The Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 21 — Dennis Cardinal Dougherty, head of the Philadelphia archdiocese, today instructed the area's 1,000,000 Catholics to stay away from the Fox theater here "at least one year" because the theater refused to discontinue showing the film "Forever Amber."

The cardinal ordered the ban in a letter to pastors in the archdiocese.

The cardinal threatened the boycott last Nov. 3. Andrew Smith, sales manager of 20th Century-Fox, operator of the Fox theater, announced the film would not be withdrawn "as long as it does a good business."

Cooler Employes Off Again Today

Production employes of the Universal Cooler Division of the International Detrola Corp, failed to report for work today, the second consecutive Friday following a contract dispute between management and the UAW-CIO.

The company reported this morning that there was work for its employes but only supervisors, foremen and office workers showed up. Normally employment at the Universal Cooler approximates 1,000 persons.

The dispute between the management and Local 750 of the UAW is said to be over the interpretation of a clause in the union contract governing employment policy during business fluctuations. There is said to be no other issue.

NEW EMPLOYE INSURANCE PLAN ANNOUNCED BY G.E.

By The Associated Press

DETROIT, Nov. 21 — General Motors Corp. today announced a new "substantially improved" multi-million dollar group insurance plan for 359,000 production and office employes.

President C. E. Wilson said the plan would add "millions of dollars in benefits" for employes. He described it as "one of the most advanced moves of its kind yet undertaken by industry."

It becomes effective Feb. 1, 1948, replacing an insurance plan first inaugurated 21 years ago.

The new plan, as explained by Wilson, deals only with insurance and does not concern itself with retirement pension demands as outlined by the CIO United Auto Workers.

Your Good Health

Relieving Hives Until Allergy Can Be Found

While hives, or as the doctors call it, urticaria, is not dangerous, it can drive a patient almost to the point of distraction by the intense itching it causes.

The cause of this condition, in which the skin breaks out in large, red welts, is not known, but there is much evidence that it may be due to an allergy or eversensitivity to certain foods, drugs, or even to chemicals which merely come in contact with the skin.

Since the allergic person is a law unto himself and may be adversely affected by things which are perfectly harmless to others, the substances which cause hives are innumerable. If such substances can be discovered, either through experience or skin testing, the individual can, of course, escape hives by avoiding contact with the offending items.

In many cases, however, it is often impossible to trace down the troublemaker. In addition, some individuals are sensitive to so many different things that it would be impossible to avoid them all, even if they could be identified.

For these reasons, methods of relieving the swelling and itching of hives are important and, from time to time, many have been suggested.

One which has been found helpful is the taking of a preparation of vitamin K, or nicotine acid, which is a part of the vitamin B-complex, and calcium or lime preparations.

Recently two new drugs, which are helpful in the treatment of a number of disorders due to allergy have also been found most effective in relieving hives.

These two substances are benadryl and pyribenzamine. The pyribenzamine, taken in capsule form, has been found almost 100 per cent successful in relieving hives due to allergy. It has also been found that this substance in an ointment applied directly to the skin may bring relief in a number of cases of eczema and other itching skin diseases.

This treatment, it must be remembered, is not a cure for hives or eczema, but it does bring relief from these skin disorders.

Benadryl also is taken by mouth. Sometimes, in cases where hives become chronic or long-continued, benadryl is also effective, but it must be taken continually. When its use is stopped, the rash is likely to recur.

Drs. Paul A. O'Leary and Eugene M. Farber of the Mayo Clinic, have found benadryl effective in both acute and chronic cases of hives. Of course, it should be employed only under the directions of a physician, in doses which he prescribes, since reactions to the drug may occur. However, in only a few instances were these reactions severe enough to make it necessary to stop the use of the drug completely, so long as the patients remained under a doctor's supervision.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

R. W.: I have had ringing of the ears for four years. Can you tell me what to do for this condition?

Answer: Ringing in the ears is due to a number of causes such as amenia, kidney disease, or an accumulation of wax in the ear, as well as to an infection in the tube connecting the ear with the mouth. It is advisable to have a physical examination to determine the cause of this condition.

Crackdown Ordered On Sales Tax Delinquents

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Nov. 21—Cracking down on sales tax violators, officials promised today maximum fines would be sought in prosecution and books of chronic offenders impounded.

Harold D. Leach, in charge of the tax collections in Cuyahoga, Lake and Geauga counties, said auditors had recovered $658,587 in the district so far this year.

One diner and bar here was found $10,000 in arrears and another diner $8,000, he reported.

The maximum penalty is $100 for the first offense and $500 on subsequent convictions.

GIFT NOT TAXABLE

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 21—A $471,101 trust fund payable to the Cadiz Methodist church in 1976 is not subject to state inheritance taxes, the second district court of appeals ruled yesterday. The decision upheld Probate Judge C. P. McClelland's ruling earlier. The trust was created by Thom A. Scott, Cadiz farm machinery manufacturer who was killed in 1944 in an automobile accident, 10 years after establishment of the trust.

MEYERS

"self-serving." William Rogers, committee counsel, broke in to note that Lamarre testified this was a "phoney letter" which Meyers asked his former business associate to write.

Rogers asked why the general was seeking written data about 1940-45 transactions in September 1947, after the company had been liquidated.

Meyers insisted that the committee probe had "nothing to do with it whatsoever." He said treasury tax agents had asked him to supply the data.

Subcontract Facts Sought

Rogers then asked about earlier testimony by President Lawrence Bell of Bell Aircraft Corporation that General Meyers had recommended Aviation Electric for a subcontract from the Bell company.

Most of the company's business and profits came from Bell subcontracts.

Meyers said that he would not dispute Bell's testimony but added that other companies than Aviation Electric also had been recommended to Bell by other officers.

Meyers angrily denied the truth of earlier testimony by Lamarre that he (Meyers) had bought a $2,995 blue Cadillac for himself—paid for with Aviation Electric funds.

The facts, he said, were that Lamarre told Meyers he needed a car and asked the general if he knew where one might be bought in Washington.

"I inquired and found I could get a Cadillac and he told me to go and buy it and I did," Meyers said.

Raising his voice, he said it had also been testified that a monogrammed robe was bought for the car, adding in a belligerent tone: "I have a robe here to show there is no monogram. Would you like to see it?"

"No," Rogers told him coldly.

Ferguson wanted to know why the name "Aviation Electric" was selected for the company when it was organized in 1939.

"Did you expect it to do business resulting from the war effort?" the senator asked.

Shouts Denial

"Your statement is not correct," the general yelled. "It's inaccurate."

Meyers said that when the company was set up no one knew there would be a war or that this government would be spending a lot on it.

Rogers noted that Meyers claimed to have advanced $35,000 to the company in 1940 and $20,000 in 1942 and now testifies he had not seen the company books.

Referring to the $18,000 the general says he lent the Lamarres personally, Rogers asked:

"Did you ask for a note in return."

"No I never did," Meyers replied.

Rogers reminded Meyers that he previously testified about giving Miss Ila Rae Curnutt, his wife-to-be, some $35,000 in aviation stock as collateral when she gave him $33,000 cash to hold in October, 1942. Meyers and Miss Curnutt were married in February, 1943.

The committee attorney wondered why Meyers did not use the same care with loans to the Lamarres.

Meyers said he had made many loans "to friends" without notes or collateral.

On the stand yesterday, Meyers declared:

"I am going to tell you the complete truth about the Aviation Electric company.

"To New Low"

"I'm afraid that I have to drop to a new low—even lower than the accusations that have been made against me.

"I do this with great hesitancy and reluctance, but I see no other way.

"I see no other way to bring out the truth, except to tell the whole story. There is no other way that it can be related.

"I still have a little bit of chivalry. So I dislike to inject the name of a woman here. But Mrs. Lamarre was my girl friend from approximately 1936 to 1940.

"She was with Mr. Lamarr's knowledge, aproval and acquiescence. This whole conception of Aviation Electric developed from that and is tied up entirely with it.

"I want to state that I believe it most unfortunate that I ever got mixed up in that particular imbroglio and with Aviation Electric in general.

"I regret it from the bottom of my heart.

"There was no other reason for forming the company but solely for the benefit of the Lamarres."

Mrs. Lamarre was Meyers' secretary from 1938 to 1939 at the Army's Wright Field in Dayton, where the general subsequently became deputy chief of the air force purchasing during the war.

RULES AGAINST ROAD IN CROSSING SUIT

Court of Appeals Decision Favors Marion Man.

A ruling handed down today by the court of appeals in the suit of William R. Lawrence Jr. against the New York Central Railroad Co., appealed from the Marion county common pleas court, was in favor of the plaintiff. The defendant, charged with obstructing the plaintiff's entering or leaving part of his land adjoining the railroad's right-o-way east of the city, was ordered to restore the crossing within 30 days and pay $100 and costs.

According to the petition filed by John H. Clark, the plaintiff and his family predecessors had used a crossing at the railroad to enter and leave their farm property for more than 90 years. In November 1945, the plaintiff claims, the railroad tore out the crossing and erected posts which obstructed the roadway.

Both the mandatory injunction asking restoration of the crossing and a permanent injunction preventing the railroad company from interfering with the roadway in the future, were supported by the court of appeals.

The firm of Carhart & Carhart represented the railroad company.

COLDEST OF COLD IS AIM OF SCIENTISTS AT O. S. U.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 21—The coldest temperature ever produced by man is the aim of Ohio State university scientists.

President Howard Bevis announced new cryogenic laboratory equipment will be used in trying to reach within a hundred-thousandths or a millionth of a degree of absolute zero.

Absolute zero is the point at which molecular motion theoretically halts, it was explained.

Scientists will use a magneto cooling apparatus employing a double-step process in their experiments.

Currently the lowest temperature attainable was reported as three-thousandths of a degree from absolute zero. It is reached through a one-step process.

Ohio State has received $7,500 from Research Corp of New York for the nuclear magnetic cooling project, President Bevis reported. The fund will be administered by Prof. John G. Daunt of the university's department of physics and astronomy.

1,000 Striking Truck Drivers Resume Work

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, Nov. 21 — The ranks of striking AFL Teamsters were cut one-third today as approximately 1,000 dump truck drivers headed back to work after accepting a wage increase of 26 cents an hour. The widespread work stoppage began last Monday morning.

The dump truck men, who received $1.04 under the contract which expired last Saturday, approved acceptance of the 26-cent boost by a majority vote last night. The tentative agreement also provides, union spokesmen said, for eight-and-a-half-hour days Monday through Friday and time and half pay for more than six hours on Saturdays, instead of the 51-hour, six-day week set in the previous agreement.

Approximately 400 people attended at various times throughout the evening the opening last night of the three-day annual Marion Lions club bazaar at the Junior Fair 4-H building at the Marion fairgrounds. Officers of the club reported this the largest crowd ever present for an opening night of the bazaar.

Between 8:30 and 9:30, Miss Inez Kraner, city public school nurse, was present to operate the Keystone Telebinocular eye testing instrument, purchased several years ago by the club for use in the city schools. She gave free eye tests to around 25 people. She will be at the bazaar each night to give tests to anyone desiring it.

The bazaar will be open tonight and Saturday night. It consists of games and amusements of all kinds, a number of concessions and several prizes given each night.

RUSSIA CALLS IRAN OIL ACTION HOSTILE

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Nov. 21—Russia has delivered to Iran a stiff note charging that by voiding proposed oil concessions to the Soviet Union a month ago the Iranian government committed a "hostile" act, Moscow radio said today.

The broadcast said the vote, delivered to Premier Ahmed Quavam yesterday in Tehran, was a "resolute protest" against "the hostile actions of the Iran government in regard to the Soviet Union, which are incompatible with normal relations between the two states."

In making this strong hint at a break in diplomatic relations, the note "charged the government of Iran with responsibility for the consequences of this," the broadcast added.

The note was dispatched Moscow said, in response to a message from Qavam dated Nov. 5, advising the Soviet Union that the Iranian majlis (parliament) "considered the agreement on the foundation of a joint Iranian-Russian Oil Company, concluded on April 4, 1946, as null and void."

By The Associated Press

AKRON, O., Nov. 21—Motion for a new trial for Roy C. Blackburn, convicted of the $31,000 armed robbery of the B. F. Goodrich Co., was on file today in common pleas court. At the same time, the ex-Ohio State university student's attorney, Standley Denlinger, said in a letter to Judge Stephen C. Colopy he "presumed" the motion would be denied. Blackburn has not been sentenced yet.

MANY MIDGET MACHINES OFFERED FOR U.S. HOMES

By International News Service

PHILADELPHIA — America, the land of mechanical giants, is also rapidly becoming a country of mechanical midgets.

Robert Zisette, general sales manager of SKF Industries, Inc., says:

"Current output of more than 40,000 varieties of tiny electric motors each capable of performing more than 100 diversified chores—is turning the home, factory and office into mechanized Lilliputs."

The modern home contains anywhere from six to 15 small motors, the SKF executive says, adding that wartime aviation is greatly responsible for their widespread popularity.

Comprising about 150 parts, small motors are performing such jobs as defeathering chickens, polishing teeth and shoes, opening windows, cans, gates and doors, powering portable tools and a multitude of other assorted things, including refrigeration, laundry, heating, pumping and cleaning.

ROYAL NEWLYWEDS BEGIN HONEYMOON

(Pictures on Pages 4 and 9)

By The Associated Press

ROMSEY, England, Nov. 21—Princess Elizabeth and Philip, her prince, wed yesterday in the tradition of a thousand years of English pomp and circumstance, began the "ever after" days of their royal romance today with one of rationed Britain's rare treats—bacon and eggs for breakfast.

From the time the oaken door of Broadlands, estate of Earl Mountbatten, closed on them late yesterday, the royal couple has been alone.

Two girls, delivering wedding evening greetings from Romsey's townspeople, said they saw nothing of the couple. But Philip's Navy officer cap, they related, was tossed casually on a hallway chair—the hat of a man who has come home in the evening.

Today the people of placid Romsey, a Hampshire market town a bit off the beaten paths of commerce, pursued their modest vocations with suppressed excitement over the prospective public appearance of the 21-year-old bride and her 28-year-old husband at Romsey Abbey religious services next Sunday.

In grey old London, the excitement subsided after yesterday's joyous celebration of the wedding.

Russia's press and the Moscow radio spoke no word of the wedding.

Its kin, the Communist Daily Worker in London, told the story of the wedding in 47 words and devoted four columns to the wedding of a young couple in dreary Wanstead, a London industrial section.

Copenhagen acclaimed the marriage as a "wedding in Hans Anderson style"—linking the royal romance to the writings of Denmark's famed spinner of fairy tales.

It was the same kind of big story in Stockholm. In Rome and Paris, both troubled with political and economic crises, the glum home news was backed away by flowing accounts of the ceremony.

UN BUDGET APPROVED

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, 21—A $34,825,195 Nations budget for 1948 was approved last night by the 57-nation general assembly. Approval of the budget gave final ratification to an earlier assembly decision to hold the 1948 assembly meeting in Europe. Final vote was 37 to 0, with 10 abstentions, including Britain Russia, the Slav states, Turkey and Pakistan.

The principal breeds of U. S. dairy cows are: Ayrshire; Brown Swiss; Guernsey; Holstein and Jersey.

LOST 30 POUNDS WITH THIS HOME RECIPE

Rennel is the original grapefruit juice recipe for taking off ugly fat. It's simple. Just go to your druggist and ask for 4 ounces of liquid Rennel. Pour the contents into a pint bottle—add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take just two tablespoonfuls a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves—if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles; just return the empty bottle for your money back. You need never know a hungry moment while taking Rennel—no starvation diet—no printed diet list to buy—no vitamins to fortify you against weakness while going hungry, for you WON'T be hungry.

Here is what Mrs. C. Horwedel, 9618 Larnder Ave., Cleveland, Ohio, says about Rennel: "I have been taking your wonderful product for some time and plan to continue to take it as I have never felt better in my life and I am reducing the easy way. I have lost 30 pounds and am losing an average of 2 to 3 pounds a week." Don't be switched to another product, get genuine Rennel.

TOGLIATTI DE GASPERI

GASPERI DEFIES REDS AS RIOTS CONTINUE. Italian Premier Alcide De Gasperi gives no quarter to his country's Communist party, headed by Palmiro Togliatti, in enlargement of the government's cabinet to embrace participation of members of the Socialist, Liberal and Common Man parties. Raising right wing Socialist Giuseppe Saragat to the vice premiership is Gasperi's answer to Togliatti's threat of continued riots, violence and death that in less than a fortnight has touched every city of any size in Italy. Pollak Steel

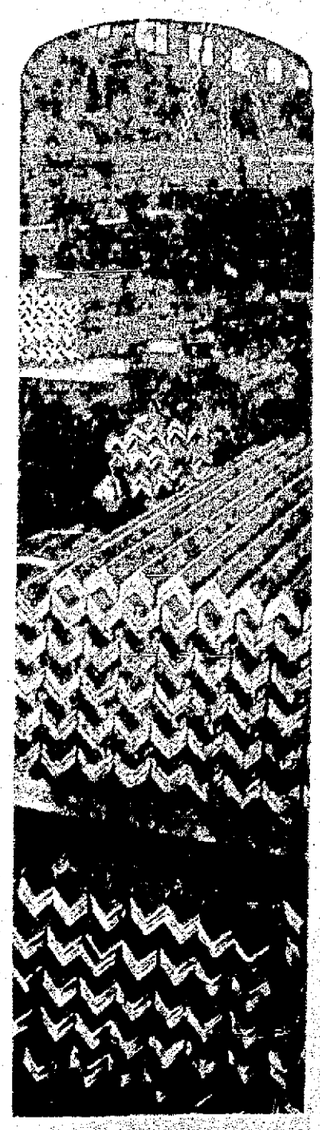
AND THE

STEEL EXPANSION PROGRAM

To maintain and enlarge the position of the City of Marion in the Steel industry, to increase over-all and per capita production and fortify the company position in future competitive markets, The Pollak Steel Company has undertaken a comprehensive program of plant expansion and improvement. Six major improvements are nearing completion ahead of the general industry and ahead of company schedules as follows.



● NEW 14 INCH MILL

Complete new Continental modern rolling mill housings, using latest type of fabric bearings, insure increased rolling capacity, economies in operation, definite improvement in quality of material produced, in addition to improving working conditions for hot mill crews.

● NEW WATER RESERVOIR, CIRCULATING AND RECLAMATION SYSTEM

Water lines, in man-high tunnel, settling basins, pump house enclosing three powerful electric pumps, will not only provide adequate supply of cold water for all cooling and operating purposes but by re-use of water from company wells will tend to conserve the underground water supply of Marion.

● 300 FOOT EXTENSION TO MAIN MILL BUILDING

This permits bringing all finished product operations and finished product storage under roof, and contributes to the greater comfort of personnel in these departments. Building houses complete facilities for reinforcing steel fabricating.

● NEW TESTING LABORATORY BUILDING

Will increase floor area and facilities for testing material to customers' requirements and provide greater opportunity for research and quality improvement.

● NEW PERSONNEL BUILDING FOR MEN

A completely new building, newly furnished. Lockers, group wash fountains, shower room, and drying room for airing and drying work clothes. All in accordance with the best and most modern practice.

● LANDSCAPING AND BEAUTIFYING

The Cheney Avenue frontage has been graded and seeded, hundreds of shrubs and plants are now in place. Additional plantings are scheduled for Spring. The program is being carried into the mill yard itself. When completed, this portion of the program will provide a real beauty spot in the southwest portion of the City. These complete the 1947 improvement program. The 1948 program is in advanced planning stage.

(All work is being done with local labor and materials.)

DIVISION OF INDIA EXPLAINED TO CLUB

Hindu Speaker Tells of Move To Independence.

Declaring that no nation is perfect, Dr. Pasupuleti Gopala Krishnayya of Madras, India, in his talk to members of the Kiwanis club Thursday noon at Hotel Harding, related how the country of India was divided into two groups and the reasons for the division. Dr. Krishnayya chose as his subject "Independence of India."

Belonging to Hinduism, which has been the religion practiced in the Union of India, the main division of the country, for over 5,000 years, Dr. Krishnayya said he was home in India on Aug. 15 when India was declared a free country.

The two divisions of India, Dr. Krishnayya explained, are the Union of India, which is the next to the largest country in the world, (China being the largest) and Pakistan, known as the "land of pure people." India was divided, Dr. Krishnayya explained, after consultation between the two when it was felt better to divide instead of having bloodshed in an attempt to unite the whole country into one. Another reason for the division, he said, was that the Mohammedans felt that the Hindus would dominate.

DR. P. G. KRISHNAYYA

The Union of India comprises three-fourths of the population and three-fourths of the area of India and practices the Hindu religion. In Pakistan, which comprises the other one-fourth of India, the Mohammedan religion has been practiced for over 1,000 years. He praised Mahatma Ghandi, the father of Indian independence.

Dr. Krishnayya said the wealthiest people in the world live in India. However, he said, the wealth is held by only 15 per cent of the people, while the other 85 per cent are in the lower division of the caste system.

A 25-year membership pin and certificate was awarded to Jay Vaughan by John Clark, who is a 25-year member of the club. An announcement was made that the club will meet jointly with the Rotary club next Tuesday as the regular Kiwanis club meeting falls on Thanksgiving day.

Guests were Nelson Mitchell of Marion, LeRoy Clauer of Marion, Rev. Frederick W. Leech, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, and William Oyler of Cleveland.

ANNAPOLIS SECRET SOCIETY IS BANNED

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21—The Navy today issued orders banning forever the 40-year-old Annapolis secret society known as the "Green Bowl," because of "rumor and speculation" that its members had the inside track for promotions and high-ranking jobs.

A Navy "memorandum to the press" said there is no evidence that the group had any such influence. But there had been, it added, an "adverse effect to a limited degree on service morale, because of the fear of the potentialities of an alleged self-serving secret society."

The report said a total of 156 naval and marine officers now on active duty belonged to the Green Bowl in midshipmen days. Armed Forces, an unofficial service publication, said recently 18 of these are admirals.

A full-scale investigation of the Green Bowl was ordered after Capt. J. G. Crommelin Jr., testified before a congressional committee that it was an innocently-started organization "grown vicious with the years."

Seventy-five officers were questioned during the two-month inquiry which followed. It was under the direction of Rear Adm. Frank J. Lowry.

Today's memorandum said the Green Bowl's "sole purpose was social" and aimed at evading strict academy rules against smoking or drinking by midshipmen.

"The investigators did not receive any persuasive evidence that the Green Bowl, or any of its members, discriminated against non-members, or that the association attempted in any way to obtain promotions or preferential duty assignments for any of its members," the Navy declared.

The full report of the investigation is classified "confidential" by the Navy, and officials declined to disclose the names of the 156 Green Bowlers now on active duty.

Cent as the name of an American coin was first suggested by Gouverneur Morris.

Contest Expected On Child Slaying Verdict

By The Associated Press

TOLEDO, O., Nov. 21—With at least two jurors reported in doubt over their votes, counsel for Mr. and Mrs. Harold LeHaney, convicted of first degree murder with mercy in the deaths of two small children, expected today to contest the verdict.

Mrs. Florence E. Freeman, a juror of the LeHaney trial, said the panel "might have made a mistake" in finding LeHaney guilty in one boy's death.

Another, Mrs. Mary Prescott, said she had been in favor of the death penalty for the wife but only a slight sentence for the woman's husband.

The LeHaneys were charged with the slayings of James Gleason, and his two-year-old brother, Gerald, last spring. The children, boarders in the LeHaney home, died of injuries received in beatings.

One Man's Opinion

It's too late for Harry to regulate the weight of the turkey for this Thanksgiving but there still is time to count the cranberries.

* * *

The weight reducing announcement has just reached my chickens and I hear one hen say to another: "Did you hear him, Biddy? He wants us to eat less . . . just like Taft."

* * *

Down at the billiard hall the boys are saying: "Why did he stop at 10 points. He could have run it to 15 and made pool."

* * *

Anyway the President indicated that he will use wage controls very carefully . . . In fact there will be considerable surprise if he uses them at all.

* * *

But I understand that Mr. Murray and Mr. Green felt that it was a pretty good program up to a certain point . . . Point 10 to be exact.

The news from Russia is that Stalin's doctor told him to take it easy . . . We've told him to "take it easy" and gotten only reproachful looks.

Area Stockmen To Compete in Chicago

Several stockmen from this district are among the 63 Ohioans sending cattle, swine, sheep, and horses to the International Livestock Exposition in Chicago opening Nov. 29, an Associated Press dispatch reports.

Earl Jenkins of Ashley will enter southdowns, and N. W. McBride of Harpster will enter corriedales in the sheep class.

The Red Run farm of Bucyrus will enter Berkshires in the swine class.

G. A. Dix of Delaware and Herbert Gibson of Upper Sandusky will enter percherons in the horse class.

The exposition will be held in the Chicago stockyards.

Judging teams from Ohio State university will lead off Ohio participation in the annual show with judging competition the opening day.

Ohio Family's Relief Bill $507 a Month

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Nov. 21 — The William Wagasky family is on relief in Cleveland—at a $507 a month clip.

A case work supervisor, Miss Emma Svec, told a reporter the money goes for room and board. All 10 persons in the family are living in a hotel because no other accommodations can be found.

The daily hotel bill: $6. The daily food bill: $10.90.

Mrs. Eva B. Gilliam

Mrs. Eva Bundy Gilliam, 42, of 377 Davies street died Wednesday of a hemorrhage in Kings Daughters hospital at Ashland, Ky. She, with other members of her family, had gone to Ashland last week to the bedside of a niece who had been injured.

Born May 1, 1905, at Greenup, Ky., to Matt and Sarah Roberts Bundy, natives of Kentucky, she had lived in Marion 20 years. She was a member of the Enterprise Baptist church at Greenup. Surviving are a brother, Jefferson Bundy of R. 3, Waverly, O., and a sister, Mrs. Myrtle Chaffin of 597 Ballentine avenue.

Funeral services will be held at the home on Davies street at 2 p. m. Saturday. Burial will be made in the Marion cemetery.

Mrs. William D. Amert

Funeral services for Mrs. William D. Amert, 68, well known Upper Sandusky resident who died Wednesday will be held 2 p. m. Saturday at the Bringman & Co. funeral home here. Rev. H. C. Kellermeyer, pastor of the Trinity Evangelical and Reformed church will officiate with burial in Oak Mission cemetery.

Mrs. Edith Gertrude (Burks) Amert was born in Seneca county, near McCutchenville, Feb. 6, 1879, the daughter of David and Sarah (Ehrhart) Burks. Dec. 16, 1896 she was united in marriage with William Daniel Amert. Surviving with the husband are two sons, Roy Amert of Shelby and Ralph Amert of northeast of Upper Sandusky. Also surviving are 13 grandchildren.

Mrs. Amanda Weisenberger

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Amanda Weisenberger, relative of Marion residents, at her home in Coalton, at 4 a. m. Thursday. She had been ill a month.

Born Dec. 24, 1863, she was a daughter of William and Alice Booth Bixby. Her husband died some time ago.

Surviving are seven children, her parents, who live at Coalton, a sister here, Mrs. Margaret Oiler of 480 West Church street, and a brother, also of Marion, Arthur Brady of 1388½ North Main street, four other brothers and another sister.

Funeral services at Coalton at 2 p. m. Sunday will be attended by the sister and brother from Marion.

William Edward Pilgrim

MT. GILEAD—William Edward Pilgrim, 59, died at his home east of Mt. Gilead at 9 a. m. today. He suffered a stroke of paralysis Tuesday morning. Born in DeKalb county, Indiana, he was a son of Edward and Susan Stull Pilgrim. A resident of Morrow county four years, he came here from Morgan. He was a member of the River Street church in Dayton. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Mabel Pilgrim, children Vernon of Detroit, Mich., Mrs. Margaret Allen and Mrs. Kathryn Horton, both of Dayton, and Mrs. Susan Stopp of Mt. Gilead, stepsons Robert Munn of Dayton and Claude Munn of Westmore Lake, Mich., 17 grandchildren, sisters, Mrs. Frances McLain of Jonesville, Mich., Mrs. Roxie Harper of West Unity, O., and Mrs. Della Kaufman of Naugatuck, Conn., and brothers, Harry of Detroit and Michael of Albion, Mich.

Funeral services will be conducted Sunday at 1 p. m. in the Craven funeral home here by Rev. L. E. Rush of the Methodist church. Burial will be in Rivercliff cemetery, Mt. Gilead.

Milo Veley

DELAWARE, O. — Milo Veley, 63, died Thursday evening at the home of his brother, Lester Veley, near Delaware, with whom he made his home. He had suffered a stroke on Wednesday. A retired farmer, he had lived near Delaware most of his life except for 20 years when he lived in the west.

Surviving are three brothers, Alvie Veley of Uhrichsville, Burton Veley of near Nevada and Lester Veley at whose home he died.

Mrs. Lavonia Bomberger

MT. GILEAD — Mrs. Lavonia Alice Bomberger, 92, formerly of the Mt. Gilead community, died in the home of a daughter, Mrs. Walter Williams, in Akron at 6 p. m. Thursday after a long illness. Born July 7, 1855, in Waterford, she was a daughter of James and Elizabeth Lyons Killin. She was a member of the Wooster Avenue Methodist church in Akron, and had resided in Akron 33 years. Surviving with Mrs. Williams are other daughters, Miss Edith Bomberger of Akron and Mrs. Belle Kepler of Port Huron, Mich., and a son, Carl of Edison. Funeral services will be conducted Sunday at 3 p. m. in the Craven funeral home here by Rev. L. E. Rush of the Methodist church. Burial will be in Rivercliff cemetery, Mt. Gilead.

IN CAPITAL PROBE. On the stand in Washington, Neta Davis, an interior decorator testifies for the Senate War Investigating subcommittee. She stated that she furnished and decorated a Seattle apartment for Maj. Gen. Bennett Meyers and was paid $10,000 in checks of the Aviation Electric Co., which, she added, "she told me she owned or had a part interest in." She is shown identifying the checks.

BROMFIELD ASSAILS FARM MERGER PLAN

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 21—Louis Bromfield, author and conservation enthusiast, is against proposed merger of the soil conservation service and agriculture extension service as a "disservice bill which will set back agriculture and soil conservation 20 years."

The novelist, addressing the National Grange convention yesterday, said in a prepared speech the American Farm Bureau is attempting to "repay an old debt" in sponsoring the merger legislation before congress.

The Grange has urged continuance of the soil conservation program, which is farmer-directed at local levels.

Bromfield asserted the Farm Bureau's sponsorship of the Cooley bill was an "attempt to repay an old debt the bureau owes the extension service for recruiting Farm Bureau members."

He complained that for years the Bureau has dominated county agents and the extension service and that the Farm Bureau has used tax money in many states to recruit membership through county agents."

Unfortunately, perhaps, Grange and not lay out a trees and river lines along county and state highways," Bromfield said adding "it is useless to try to control the flow of water in one county or one state. It has to be done on the basis of watersheds."

Bromfield promised to wage a personal fight to defeat provisions contained in the Cooley bill which he said if adopted would lead to the end of the present soil conservation program.

REPORT ON ACTIVITIES AT MEETING OF ELKS

Reports on plans for the near future were given and a complete report received at a meeting of Marion Lodge No. 32, B. P. O. Elks, Thursday night. Kuhn Kay chairman of the committee in charge of plans for a district conference to be held here Dec. 13 and 14, reported that arrangements are being completed for the event.

It was announced that Delaware Lodge members will be guests of the local lodge on Dec. 4, in keeping with the visitation program for lodges in the North Central district. At this time there will be a lunch and dinner and a floor show will be presented. Final plans were announced for the stag party and it is to be a Sunday night affair for members.

U. S. COMPILES NAZI AIR FILE

1,500 Tons of Documents Recorded in Microfilm at Wright Field.

By The Associated Press

DAYTON, O., Nov 21.—Any student who ever tried to wade through just a single page of German translation will appreciate this one.

What once were 1,500 tons of German documents—a complete history of the Nazi air research program from 1923 to 1945—have been evaluated, classified, catalogued indexed and published in microfilm by air intelligence experts at nearby Wright field.

As a result, American aircraft industries have at their call products of the most intensified agronautical development program the world ever has known.

Engineers estimate the actual research contained in the captured documents would cost between two and three billion dollars if reproduced today in this country.

The air documents division of the AAF air material command's intelligence department discarded 1,450 tons of lesser papers at the beginning of project index. But it handled 55,000 Nazi documents, all written in technical German and using at least 110,000 new German aeronautical terms familiar only to German scientists.

Included were tons of top secret details on the world's first production jet-engine fighter, the Messerschmitt-262, design, production and test information needed to duplicate the deadly V-1 and V-2 missiles, plus hundreds of other ideas ranging from swept-back wings for supersonic flight to formulas for making heat-resistant dyes and synthetic rubber for airplane tires.

Moving spirit behind the job has been a young AAF officer, Col. H. M. McCoy, West Point graduate and holder of two graduate degrees from the California Institute of Technology.

It was McCoy who evolved what seemed a fantastic idea in 1945 when the project actually got down to the work of abstracting and filing.

UNION CO. FARMER WINS SOIL CONTEST

Paul Herd Takes Prize in Conservation Event.

Paul Herd, Union county farmer, was declared first place winner in the western Ohio area of the Baltimore and Ohio soil conservation contest, according to information received by C. G. Phillips of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service, assisting the Union Soil Conservation District with headquarters at Marysville.

Lester J. Miller, agricultural agent of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, said that Mr. Herd will receive a $50 U. S. treasury bond for winning first place. Other area winners are Clarence Schissler, Carroll county for the Northeastern Ohio area, and William Redman, Muskingum county for the southeastern Ohio area.

Mrs. Herd accomplished the following soil conservation practices on his farm during the past year:

Application of 50 ton of limestone, application of 15,700 lbs of fertilizer, installed 1000 lineal feet of open ditch, installed 700 rod of tile, constructed 1500 feet of terraces, constructed 500 feet of terrace outlet, constructed 1700 feet of sod waterways.

Seeded 900 feet of natural waterways to be left in sod, planted 9 acres of corn on the contour, planted 21 acres of small grain on the contour, built 110 rods of new fence, included 9 acres of permanent pasture in the crop rotation, 20 acres of woodland have been protected from grazing, increased purebred Angus beef breeding animals 25 per cent.

Mr. Herd states that this is only a start on a long-range Farm Conservation Plan which he is developing on his farm called the "Sunny Run Farm." He gives much credit to the Union Soil Conservation District, which is assisted by C. G. Phillips and Ross S. Boop of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service, for on-site assistance in farm planning and the actual development of the farm plan.

Paul is using a four-year rotation of row crop, small grain, and two-years of legume-grass meadow. The "Sunny Run Farm" contains 120 acres of cropland, 10 acres of permanent pasture, 36 acres of permanent pasture and 20 acres of woodland. The main farm enterprise is a purebred Angus beef breeding herd.

The same thing ...ppened to them

MARLOW

In 1934, under the urging of Secretary of State Hull, the Democratic congress passed the reciprocal trade agreements act That act meant this.

The President, upon the advice of his experts, could cut the tariff on goods imported here by 50 per cent of what they were before the act was passed.

The act was to hold good for only a couple of years. But each time congress renewed it.

The last time, in 1946, congress decided the President, to help world trade, could cut tariffs as much as 50 per cent under what they were in 1934.

Came World War II and the quiet days after the war. A lot of countries were flat on their backs.

BUT BEFORE THE WAR was over this country suggested a world trade meeting to do something about tariffs.

The United Nations through their economic and social council, took up on our suggestion

Finally the council called a world trade conference in Geneva, Switzerland, last April

(The Soviet Union was invited to send delegates and take part but it refused.)

But the United States and 22 other countries sent delegates We sent about 130 experts there. This was the problem:

We'd cut tariffs if other nations would do the same so more goods could be exchanged among the 23 countries.

The delegates, experts from the 23 nations, worked until about Oct 31 and then announced a general agreement.

AMONG THEM THE 23 nations agreed to cut tariffs on about 45,000 different items that they imported from one another (The United States agreed to cut tariffs on 3,500 items.)

Does congress have to approve what our delegates agreed upon? No They acted under the same reciprocal trade agreements mentioned above.

(This latest version of the act was passed last year and continues in effect, without congressional approval, until June 12, 1948.

(In short, it leaves it up to the President, meaning his trade advisers, to cut tariffs without okay from congress.)

Our imports this year from other countries amount to about $8,000,000,000 But the stuff we send them amount to about $19,000,000,000

SO IT'S TO OUR advantage to have other countries cut down the size of the tariff on the goods we send them.

This trade agreement lasts until Jan 1, 1951 but in the meantime, if any country decides it wants a monopoly for any of its industries, it can get the others to make some changes.

But what does all this mean in every day terms? Perhaps this will illustrate what is meant.

Scotch whisky is the biggest single item we import from the United Kingdom We have had a tariff on it of $2 50 a gallon

(That means we put a tax of $2 50 on every gallon of Scotch whisky brought in here from any country in the British empire, in addition to the price per gallon.)

Under the agreements worked out at Geneva we'll cut the tariff on Scotch whisky from $2 50 to $1.50 a gallon.

In turn, the British empire will cut the tariff on a lot of goods we send to countries in the empire.

Take France for example: France had a tariff of 70 per cent on every automobile we sent there. It's cut the tariff to 35 per cent under the agreement

(That was a tax of $700 on a $1 000 automobile That's been cut to $350 per car.)

In turn, we cut the tax on French perfume brought into this country. The same thing goes for the other 22 countries which agreed to the trade agreement with the United States

The general idea as noted above, is to promote trade between the countries so that all will benefit.

Capital Capers

By Frederick Othman

WASHINGTON

NO Hollywood producer would ever even dream of such an unfolded in a senate hearing room, the censors would have tossed it on the cutting room floor and set a match to it.

The proceedings hardly seemed real. The paleface Maj. Gen. Bennett Meyers, retired, told a story that couldn't possibly have happened, except that of course—he said it did. Sen Homer Ferguson, of Mich., chairman of the committee tossing into the general's big business deals squirmed in embarrassment as he listened

And Blenor Lamarre, the wronged husband—if wronged he was — sat there with his cheeks flushed a deep pink, while he stared at the man who admitted a long-time love affair with Mrs. Lamarre.

OTHMAN

The bald-headed general said he was a chivalrous soul, but that he also was in a spot. He said he hated to mention the name of a lady, but mention it he had to do. And then he blurted out the whole story, hanging the table at intervals getting paler than his own shirt as he went along, and speaking so rapidly reporters had difficulty keeping up with him.

He scrunched forward on his big leather chair, so that his words reverberated as far as the crowds waiting outside the door, and said that Mrs. Lamarre had been not only his secretary, but his girl friend (his words) between 1936 and 1940.

"WAS SHE MARRIED in 1936," asked the senator

"To Mr. Lamarre," the general replied. "This relationship was with his knowledge, approval and acquiescence."

Lamarre uncrossed his long legs, crossed them again and frowned. The general said that when the Lamarres left Dayton, O., for Los Angeles he wanted Mrs. Lamarre back.

"And you want to know why I organized the Aviation Electric Co.?" he cried. "I'll tell you why I organized it to get her back to Dayton."

Lamarre became president of the concern, which did more than $1,000,000 worth of war business. He claimed that he got only $80 per week and that during the five years of its existence, he passed on more than $17,000 profits secretly to Gen Meyers.

"That was not true," the general shouted. "This man has admitted he perjured himself. I categorically deny any money for the reasons I stated and I lent the Lamarres, both of them, about $18,000 over the years."

THE SENATOR WONDERED if he had any cancelled checks to back up this assertion. Gen Meyers was amazed. Why, he said, he was married to his second wife at the time. And he could not conceive of a U. S. senator believing that he would pay anything but cash under the circumstances.

Now Sen Ferguson's face was flushed under his crop of white hair. He said he believed that Gen. Meyers' story reflected more discredit upon the military of an army general than did the tale of Lamarre

This time the general was incredulous.

"Dishonest?" he shouted. "To the uniform? Is it dishonorable to set two people up in business and give them a start?"

The senator had no comment about that.

Roving Reports

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

THE onward march of commerce

A war surplus store off Broadway is disposing of Army bugles at $10 88—cheerful sign of peace.

On the other hand the same store is featuring U. S. Navy paperweights at three for a quarter, which may or may not indicate the admirals are stripping decks for action.

DAVID FLEXER, a 36-year-old Memphis, Tenn., film exhibitor, doesn't lay claim to the invention of electric bottle warmers for baby's milk, but he does say he is the first to introduce them into outdoor drive-in theaters

"The mother just reaches out of her motor car, pushes a button and an attendant brings her the bottle warmer," he said

BOYLE

This is just one of many new services added in a campaign to glamorize drive-in theaters, which are entering a nationwide boom Flexer himself has undertaken a program to build 25 in the east and middle west and predicts there will be 2,500 throughout the United States within five years. At present there are only some 200

Biggest innovation has been the "inear speaker," which is a voice box contraption hung inside each parked car and permits the occupants to control the volume of the film's dialogue.

The new drive-ins are landscaped and have sloping parking ramps with room for 600 to 1,000 cars Refreshment stands serving sandwiches and soft drinks give the management an extra profit source.

"The drive-in is the only theater in which a man can eat popcorn without annoying the other spectators," remarked Flexer.

No friend of the baby sitter, he plans a 150-foot playground in his theaters between the giant 65-foot-wide screen and the first row of cars Customers can thus turn their children over to the care of playground attendants while they watch the picture from their cars

THE SHOWS GO ON, rain or shine. In wet weather an attendant merely wipes a glycerine-soaked sponge over the windshield as the car drives in, and that keeps off the raindrops

Biggest advantage of the Al Fresco theaters is that they cost only $130,000 to $160 000 to build as compared to $500,000 for a comparable indoor theater. Managers say each car averages 2.9 paying customers and estimate 72 per cent of their intake comes from families, 10 to 12 per cent from convalescents

Most trouble is caused by spooners

"We have regular police patrols," said Flexer with dignity. "If a man puts his arm around his girl, that's all right with us But if she puts her arm around him, too, and they go into a clinch—well, that's out."

Another Memphis entrepreneur, William R Cause came here to promote a new national "pin-up" club for expectant fathers in cooperation with Red Cross group he arranges demonstration lectures teaching dads-to-be on how to hold, feed, burp and diaper their offspring.

BY ONE OF THE AMAZING coincidences of history Cause is also president of the National Institute of Diaper Services But he said the Expectant Fathers' club was more of a good will gesture than a drive for more business.

"As it is now," he said, "wives keep asking our truck drivers to show their husbands how to diaper the baby, and they lose a lot of time making their deliveries.

"We don't care," he drawled, "whether the expectant fathers we teach send out their diapers They can wash them themselves if they want to."

"We Think We'll Beat 'Em" Says Fesler of Michigan

By KEN DAVIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

'Twas the day before Michigan
And all through the state
Not a Buckeye was hoping—
'Twas all up to fate.

The exception to prove the rule was a curly haired young man named Wes Fesler, coach of the Ohio State footballers who threw his doubts to the emotional winds of a football rally in Columbus last night and said:

"We are going to meet the finest team Michigan ever had and we actually think we're going to beat 'em."

To bolster this sentiment, Fesler yesterday moved a fiery little 168-pounder into his starting lineup at left halfback, speedy Mike Cannavino.

That was the only change, however, in a starting lineup which has collected two victories, absorbed five defeats and eked out one deadlock.

Cannavino, Fesler indicated, will replace Jimmy Clark at the top running spot, with Pandel Savic, the little Armenian, doing the signal calling, big Ollie Cline plunging from fullback and injury-hampered Dean Sensanbaugher running at right half.

Dick Singer, the No. 2 signal caller and passer, seemed certain to get the call to action early and often, and Pete Perini, the Big Nine's third best punter and the Buckeyes' third string fullback, looked a good bet for some signal calling himself.

Perini in recent weeks has been drilling as a field general on offense and he is the only other quarterback on the squad of 36 men which entrained last night for Ann Arbor and the engagement with the Michigan gridiron grinder.

Fesler said Rod Swinehart, a left halfback who has been suffering with a bruised thigh received against Illinois, might get into the Michigan game. He ran around without pads yesterday.

Swinehart's big mission against the Wolverines would be as a defensive quarterback to give Cline some rest. With Whisler's bruised chest probably an early ticket to the bench, Cline may have to go most of the distance on offense alone.

With little to grin about the remainder of this year, Fesler had at least one kinder reminder of the 1948 season to come: guard Dave Templeton has one season of eligibility remaining and is considering returning for it.

BOB RODENBERG, boss of the Baltimore Colts football team, was out to buy the St. Louis Browns' American league franchise, but Dick Muckerman, Browns' principal owner, said in St. Louis it was news to him. (AP Wirephoto)

TO STAGE BENEFIT GAME FOR INJURED GRIDDER

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS, Nov. 21 — Receipts from ticket sales for the Bucyrus Green Hornet-Toledo South Side football game here Sunday afternoon will be turned over to Wayne Phipps, linesman for the Chardon Pirates, who suffered a leg injury necessitating amputation above the knee at the opening of the season here.

Phipps plans to attend the game, Hornet officials said today.

Edison Looks Tough To Morral County Cagers

Morrow county cagers are looking to Edison as the team to beat this year as the league schedule gets underway tonight.

The Edison quintet has already won five games (three of them practice), though some of them were close. They stopped Mt. Gilead Business college, 36-34, Martel, 49-14, Caledonia, 36-33, New Bloomington, 58-28, and Pleasant, 41-39.

Edison has plenty of size this year with three boys in the starting lineup over six feet tall. The other two starters are exceptionally fast, says Coach Fred "Happy" Goare.

Happy's brother, Maynard, was an all-county selection at Chesterville last year. Norman Worline, a 6-1½ guard, is a rugged man on bank board work, and Harold Jackson and Oris Shipman are both very fast. Dick Hardman at center is a good team ball player. All five starters are juniors.

The Edison cagers meet Marengo tonight in the first Morrow county league game. Other league games scheduled tonight are Sparta at Chesterville, and Johnsville at Iberia.

SAFETY CAB ANGELS TO OPEN TOMORROW

The Safety Cab Angels basketball team opens the season at Mansfield tomorrow with the Mansfield reformatory.

To date, the Angel cagers scheduled five games, three of them in Marion. Other class A teams will be scheduled later.

Coached by Wes Wilcox and Chuck Murray, the Angels players are former high school stars, most of them from Marion.

Tom Moran and Bob Wintersteller are former St. Mary cage stars, and Chuck Reid, Don Cook, Gene Shellhorn, Carl Harbolt, and Max Roseberry are from Harding High. "Bugs" Reams hails from Kenton, Bill Miller played in Columbus, Lloyd Coder at Magnetic Springs, and Kenny Jones at LaRue.

The team is managed by George Ferriman and Ernie Aricuri.

The schedule follows: Nov. 29 at Greenwich; Dec. 6, Toledo All-Stars; Dec. 28, Apolla Rockets, Ft. Wayne, Ind.; Jan. 30, Dayton Fisher Body.

TRI-CITY CHAMPS FETED AT DINNER

Special to The Star

GALION, Nov. 21 — Champions of the Tri-City Junior High football league, the Galion Junior High gridders and Coach Ed Hixson, banqueted on turkey and all of the trimmings last night as a reward for their season's work.

Fifteen men and the manager of the squad were honored during the evening when Coach Ed Hixson presented them with letters and watch-chain individual silver footballs, inscribed with the name of the player, his position, and "Tri-City Champs." The footballs were made possible by a donation of Gil Fast.

Schlairet Team Boasts Plenty of Cage Talent

An array of basketball talent eight men deep will hit the hardwood with Schlairet Transfer in the Monday Night Y.M.C.A. Independent basketball loop this season.

To start off, there are two basketball coaches on the team—Kenny Somerlot, head cage mentor at Harding, and George Keel, sophomore coach. Somerlot played at Pleasant in high school and Miami university in college. He coached at Harpster before coming to Harding.

George Keel played at Kenton High school and was an All-Ohio basketball and football player at Ohio Northern. Last year he coached at Meeker.

Then there are the Dillion boys, Harold Leo, and Junior, all former Harpster stars. Harold also went to Miami U. Leo, besides playing basketball, is the state shot-put champion and holds the state discuss record.

Gail Stout, Dick Holiday, Jesse Davis, and Bill England, are all former Harding stars now sinking them in for Schlairet.

Schlairet opens the league season Dec. 1 with the Marion Merchants.

$1,000 Awaits Keglers In Bowling Tournament

Another $1,000 in bowling prizes await individuals who compete in the 29th annual Dispatch Sweepstakes in Columbus, Jan. 3-4-9-10-11, 1948. This will be the first year the Dispatch event has guaranteed such a prize, in past years $250 having been tops.

The tournament is a four-game test for individuals, bowled across eight lanes on the second floor of the Hi-Goodale Recreation. Record for the tournament is 938 by Cliff Robling, top-notch Columbus bowler, who established the mark on the same squad 10 years ago that Tod Pehrson, also of Columbus, was shooting 933, which stands as second high.

In order to provide visiting bowlers with choice places in the schedule, all Columbus men must complete their bowling by Friday Jan. 9, thus leaving the last two days of the event for visitors. Entry fee will be $22.50 per men and deadline for entries is Dec. 20, 1947.

Address all inquiries to W. K. O'Brien, tournament secretary, at 594 N. High St., Columbus, O.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER in the National league for the 1947 season is title won by Bob Elliott, Boston Braves' third baseman, and inspiration for this embrace by his wife and daughter, Cheryl, in San Diego, Calif. (International Soundphoto)

National, All-America Coaches Pick All-League Grid Teams

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 21—The professional leagues admittedly are the frappe of football, so you get the really great of the gridiron today in all-league teams selected by coaches and officials of the National league and All-America Football conference.

Up until the AAC got into the thick of things last year the National league club was the real All American football team. Each team had playing comparisons which could be drawn.

Now it gets tougher again with the AAC in the running so you get twice as much for your money—two real All-American teams.

Probably because it has been established longer and thus gone through the shakedown process, the National league spreads its talent a bit more with eight clubs represented on the first and second teams. But all you have to do is look at the AAC standings, where Cleveland and New York lead the parade, to understand why the Yankees and Browns lead the pack by such a top-heavy margin, as only six clubs are represented.

The teams, selected by men who should know, are:

NATIONAL LEAGUE

First Team	Pos.	Second Team
Larry Craig, Green Bay	E	Don Currivan, Boston
Stan Mauldin, Chicago Bears	T	Fred Davis, Chi. Bears
Len Younce, N. Y. Giants	G	Garrard Ramsey, Chi. Cards
Bulldog Turner, Chi. Bears	C	Chuck Cherundolo, Pittsburgh
Riley Matheson, L. A. Rams	G	John Badaczewski, Boston
Jim White, N. Y. Giants	T	Tiny Ray, Green Bay
Bill Dewell, Chi. Cards	E	Jim Kean, Chi. Bears
Sid Luckman, Chi. Bears	B	Paul Christman, Chi. Cards
Steve Van Buren, Philadelphia	B	John Clement, Pittsburgh
Tony Canadeo, Green ay	B	Hugh Gallarneau, Chi. Bears
Pat Harder, Chi. Cards	B	Walt Schlinkman, Green Bay

That gives the Cards three on the first team, with the Giants, Bears and Green Bay each two and Los Angeles Rams one. The Bears put three on the second team, Green Bay and the Cards each two and Boston and Pittsburgh each moving in with a pair.

Overlooking Sammy Baugh may come as a surprise, with Detroit joining Washington to make a pair of unplaced teams.

ALL AMERICA CONFERENCE

First Team	Pos.	Second Team
Bruce Alford, N. Y. Yanks	E	Dante Lavelli, Cleveland
Lou Rymkis, Cleveland	T	Martin Ruby, Cleveland
Dick Barwegan, N. Y. Yanks	G	Al Loiotai, San Francisco
Mike Scarry, Cleveland	C	Bob Nelson, Los Angeles
Bruno Banducci, San Fran.	G	Bill Willis, Cleveland
Nate Johnson, N. Y. Yanks	T	John Wonderberg, San Fran.
Mac Speedie, Cleveland	E	Jack Russell, N. Y. Yanks
Otto Graham, Cleveland	B	George Ratterman, Buffalo
Spec Sanders, N. Y. Yanks	B	John Strzykalski, San Fran.
Chet Mutryn, Buffalo	B	Buddy Young, N. Y. Yanks
Marion Motley, Cleveland	B	Bob Sweiger, N. Y. Yanks

That's really overloaded with Yanks and Browns, Cleveland having five on the first team and New York four and each having three on the second team. San Francisco and Brooklyn each get one first; San Francisco three seconds with one each for Los Angeles and Buffalo. Baltimore and the Chicago Rockets are ignored.

But just for once, bub, don't blame me!

OBERLIN WINS IN SOCCER

GAMBIER, O., Nov. 21—Ohio's only intercollegiate soccer teams met yesterday and Oberlin emerged with a 3-1 triumph over Kenyon College.

ANDERSON TO STAY AS IOWA MENTOR

By The Associated Press

IOWA CITY, Ia., Nov. 21—Dr. Eddie Anderson, glad that "we got things straightened out," is going to stay as head football coach at the University of Iowa.

Anderson, whose oral resignation was refused by the university's board in control of athletics, looked ahead to an expanded program that "if followed through will do some real good in the future."

The statement by Anderson, who resigned on the eve of Iowa's 13-7 victory over Minnesota last Saturday because of "loose talk" about him and his squad, came shortly after the athletic board announced last night it had refused his resignation.

Anderson's contract runs through 1950 at a yearly salary of $12,500.

Snatches of Sports

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
AP Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 21—The boys who appear the least concerned about Bob Rodenberg's threat to buy the St. Louis Browns and transfer them to Baltimore are the International leaguers, who would lose some of their most valuable territory if the deal should go through....Loafing around prexy Shag Shaughnessy's office just before taking off for Florida, Leo Miller, the Syracuse club's chief, volunteered: "I can give you the answer to that; George M. Cohan was going to buy a major league club for 40 years, but he never did...A couple of years ago a bunch of us started figuring how much it would cost to move the Browns, jotting down various items. We reached 2½ million so fast we just gave up."...Miller went on to explain that it was at the International league's insistence that the rule on "drafting" territory was changed so as to give the invaded league full compensation . . . And Shaughnessy added: "Baltimore isn't a major league city with a last place club—and that's what they will be for several years, at least. What do you think of those trades? I wonder what minor league they're planning to move into."

JUST AFTER MICHIGAN scored its fifth touchdown against Wisconsin last Saturday, Dick Rifenburg, the end who caught the paydirt pass, raced back into the huddle and asked "Captain Hilkene, is it okay now if we mention that word R-O-S-E B-O-W-L?"...Anyway, he can spell it as well as play in it.

Commercial, Smith's, Martel Win in Y Play

Commercial Steel, Smith's Clothing, and Martel Elevators came out on top in pre-season games played at the Y.M.C.A. last night.

High scorer during the evening was Gene Freet, who dropped in 21 points for Martel as the Elevators took Carroll's Jewelry, 46-25.

Francis Reeder scored 11 and Jay Frank 10 points for Commercial to lead the team to a 30-29 edge over Marion Merchants.

Dick Hood lead Smith Clothing to a 28-20 win over Pollak Steel, scoring 12 points.

Scores by quarters:

Commercial Steel	6	10	10	4—30
Marion Merchants	6	11	6	6—29
Smith's Clothing	2	10	2	14—28
Pollak Steel	6	6	4	4—20
Martel Elevator	6	12	15	13—46
Carroll's Jewelry	8	0	5	12—25

RECORD SHOW DOG ENTRY

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Nov. 21—A record total of 1,508 dogs are entered in the 36th annual combined specialty show at the coliseum here Sunday, making it the largest of its kind in the United States, A. Wilson Bow, of Detroit, superintendent of the show, announced today. Bow said 24 breed clubs, representing 27 states, the District of Columbia and Canada will take part in the show.

Yankees Want Chandler To Scan Browns' Baseball Mart

By The Associated Press

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 21—The mighty New York Yankees have added their voice to the cry of alarm emanating from several baseball quarters over the St. Louis Browns' startling trading activities.

Yankee President Daniel R. Topping, claiming he doesn't want "to see the American league become a seven-club league," yesterday asked for a "complete investigation" of the Browns' player trades.

The Browns who finished eighth in 1947 have already transferred six of their best players to the Boston Red Sox and the Cleveland Indians in exchange for players of unknown quality and an unannounced amount of cash.

Topping's statement said the Yanks will request that, through Baseball Commissioner A. B. Chandler and League President William Harridge, "a complete investigation of the situation be made."

William O. Dewitt, vice president and general manager of the Browns, declined comment on the Yankees' protest. He said the answer would have to come from President Richard Muckermann of the Browns who is out of the city.

Chandler and Harridge also declined comment for the time being.

The Browns' latest deal, their third in a week, sent pitcher Bob Muncrief and first baseman Walt Judnich, both regulars, to the Cleveland Indians. In return they got outfielder Joe Frazier, a player still to be named and an indicated $25,000 or more in cash.

Previously St. Louis traded shortstop Vern Stephens, pitchers Jack Kramer and Ellis Kinder and reserve infielder Billy Hitchcock to the Boston Red Sox.

Defending Cage Champs Strong This Season Too

The Green Camp K. of P. basketball team, champions of the city Y.M.C.A. league last year, are strong contenders for champions of the Monday Night league of the Y.M.C.A. Independent loop this season. They open their season Dec. 1 with McMillen Feeds.

K. of C. players include Charles Carr, formerly of Green Camp High school, Wayne Weston, Norman Weston, Kenneth Jerew, Jerald Jerew, and Lewis Long, also former Green Camp cagers, Lowell Hedges, ex-Pleasant star, and John Price, once with Claridon.

The team is manager by Bane Brecker.

Lamotta Through 1st Round of Investigation

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Nov. 21—Having spoken his piece at the district attorney's office, Jake Lamotta awaited today the next turn of events in a two-pronged investigation of his fourth-round knockout by Bill Fox a week ago.

Lamotta, his father and brother, J. E., Sr., and Jr.; Blinky Palermo, Fox's manager; Frankie Carbo, described by the district attorney's office as an underworld link with boxing, and Bill Daly, a New Jersey fight manager, were called to the D A's office yesterday.

The state athletic commission was scheduled to meet in its regular weekly session today and it remained to be seen whether any of the fight figures would be asked to appear. Commission chairman Eddie Eagan already has interviewed Lamotta.

Caribbean World Series Seen by Minor Leagues

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Nov 21—The National Association of Professional Baseball leagues today admitted the possibility of a "Caribbean World Series" in 1948 or late winter of 1949.

President George Trautman of the minor leagues said conferences with representatives of baseball from Cuba, Mexico, Panama, Venezuela and Porto Rico about possible expansion of organized baseball to these nations are scheduled along with the annual minor league convention at Miami beginning Dec. 3.

Trautman said Frey Nano, newly elected Commissioner of Baseball in Mexico, has asked permission to address the convention and assure other baseball officials Mexican raiding days are over.

Ol' Diz Burned Up— His Trophies Stolen

By The Associated Press

DALLAS, Nov. 21 — Old Diz was mad as a hornet today.

Diz — Jerome Herman Dean —told police some one had stolen all the trophies of his golden days in baseball.

"It ain't gonna be healthy for that guy if Old Diz lays his hands on him," he snarled.

Dizzy reported he discovered his loss when he unpacked some boxes of belongings which had been in storage.

CHECK CONTINUES AT GALION PLANT

Special to The Star

GALION, Nov. 21 — It was learned today that the entire list of employes eligible to union membership is being included in the cross-check of CIO United Auto Workers pledge cards against North Electric Manufacturing company payroll.

The cross-check which is being conducted at an engineering building on East Parson street on the company grounds, got underway at 2 p m., Thursday. By 6 p. m., it was estimated that some 118 workers had been interviewed. Those who had not signed pledge cards could move along rapidly, while the interviews took a longer time for the signers.

Verner E. Wardlaw, Columbus, of the U S Mediation and Conciliation Service, who is acting as arbiter, questions the pledge signers on two points. Validity of signature and whether proper methods were used to obtain the signatures as provided in the agreement reached Nov. 1 between company and union, ending a 74-day strike.

If the cross-check cannot be completed by tonight, it will be resumed next Tuesday, it was announced today. Results of the cross-check which will determine whether or not the UAW-CIO had a majority of unit workers as of Aug 19, day before the strike was called, will be given simultaneously to the union and the company by the arbiter.

Wardlaw is conducting the interviews in the presence of observers for both sides. Rev Norman R. Somerville, First Methodist pastor of Galion, and Very Rev William J Spickerman V. F. of Marion St Mary church, who jointly announced their choice of arbiter, Tuesday night.

No trapping is allowed over Sunday. Traps must be sprung.

Smith Calls Marshall Plan Only Lend-Lease

Congressman Frederick C. Smith of Marion yesterday condemned his recent assails on the Marshall plan for aid to Europe by branding the plan as "a new name for lend-lease."

"Communist Russia," he said, "converted lend-lease into a two-edged sword. She uses one edge to defeat herself alone—against the German war machine. The other she used to mangle liberty and freedom of contract in other parts of the world, particularly in the United States.

"Here with the cooperation and encouragement of New Dealism which is itself collectivistic, she was amazingly successful in utilizing the lend-lease program to honeycomb and infiltrate the economy and what we call government with the toxin of communism. Except for the favorable climate provided by New Dealism, Stalin's plants which lend-lease made possible could not have taken root in this country.

"In the interest of fairness and understanding it must be said that neither the starting nor developing of New Dealism is solely attributable to any particular political party."

FACES DEATH IN CHAIR

By The Associated Press

HAMILTON, O., Nov. 21—Clifford Cayles, 34-year-old Xenia Negro who once served 10 years in Ohio penitentiary for stabbing a Cincinnati woman to death, today was doomed to die in the electric chair. A Butler county common pleas court jury of six men and six women deliberated only 30 minutes late yesterday to find him guilty of first degree murder in connection with the fatal stabbing last Labor day eve of Mrs. Edna Adkins, 33, of nearby Franklin.

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN PLANS "OPEN HOUSE"

Is Scheduled for Sunday at New Church Home.

An "open house" for the new church home of Central Christian church at 421 Mt. Vernon avenue will be held Sunday from 2 to 5 p. m. Rev. Eldred Johnston, pastor, announced invitation to members of other churches who wish to see how the church has its new quarters arranged. He pointed out that the church occupies for the present just the west half of the building, and that those who attend the "open house" should use the west door on the Mt. Vernon side of the house.

In the reception line will be Rev. Johnston, Elmer Weimer, chairman of the official board, Cutler McGrew, chairman of the elders, Mrs. E. J. Hollanshead, chairman of the deaconesses, Herman Heisler, chairman of the deacons, Mrs. Oscar Cross, president of the Women's Council, and Miss Alma Harrold, president of the Youth Fellowship. Tea will be poured by Mrs. Eldred Johnston and Miss Luella Scholl. Mrs. Madge Curl will be at the console of the organ.

Central Christian church moved to its new location from its former location at 235 West Church street, a site now owned by First Church of the Nazarene. The part of the building now used by the church was formerly occupied by the Ray R. King family. After May 1, the church will take possession of the other half of the building now occupied by the Hoover Brown family.

Missionary To Speak At Emmanuel Baptist

A missionary of the Central American Mission, Miss Mabel I. Elthon, will speak at the Emmanuel Baptist church Sunday morning. Miss Elthon has been a missionary for nearly 25 years under this mission, which was founded by Dr. C. I. Scofield, compiler of the Scofield Reference Bible. Her field has been the Republic of Nicaragua but she has worked in all the republics of Central America. Her message will give a picture of the work there, and present a challenge for the work of today. Miss Elthon arrived in the United States last month.

Sunday evening, the pastor, Dr. C. E. Hershey, will begin a series of messages on "Science and the Bible," which will continue each Sunday evening, closing with "Science and the Virgin Birth," just prior to Christmas. "In this modern day the Bible has been attacked severely by so-called scientists, claiming its truths unscientific," Dr. Hershey said. "These messages will make clear how well the science of the Bible coordinates with true modern science."

FAVORS DEFENDANT

BUCYRUS, Nov. 21—A Crawford county petit jury awarded a verdict for the defendant, Edward Truka Jr. in the action for damages brought by Lloyd C. Downing, heard Tuesday. Downing sought $2,500 for personal injury and $233.23 for damages to his car charging that the defendant failed to give the right of way to the plaintiff resulting in an automobile accident May 11, 1946 at Poplar and Charles street.

SEES GIFTS BEFORE ITS TOO LATE — Because it is said that she may be totally blind by Christmas 5-year-old Peggy Bennett, of Titusville, N. J., already knows what Santa Claus is going to bring her. Peggy has lost the sight of one eye, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bennett fear that she will not be able to see her presents as other children do. So Thanksgiving day will become Christmas in their household. Unaware of the possible fate awaiting her, Peggy looks over the toys already sent her.

Love's Perilous Path

By ADELE GARRISON

MARY'S face was suddenly illuminated with genuine delight.

"Going down to see Granzie!" she exclaimed. "How perfectly wonderful. I've been wondering when they'd let me out to get down to the hospital, but I didn't want to add a straw to the load Dr. Twitchell, Aunt Katharine and you—particularly you—have been carrying because of me."

"We haven't broken down, any of us," I told her laughing, but her face was suddenly serious.

"Auntie Madge," she said. "How—how—much does Granzie know about me—about the way I've been acting?"

"I wish you'd put that part of your illness out of your mind, as if it never had been," I told her irritably. "Everybody else concerned has forgotten it."

"No, they haven't," she said shrewdly. "Forgiven, sure, but not forgotten. But—you haven't answered my question."

"Will you believe me, if I tell you the truth?" I countered, "or will you begin to quibble?"

"Cross my heart, hope to die," she intoned, using the time-honored childish gesture, "also Girl Scout honor, I'll accept everything you tell me as gospel truth."

"You'd better," I threatened, then spoke slowly, emphatically.

"Your grandmother knows that you came home from the sanitarium, very much better, but extremely fatigued, and that you have been resting ever since under the care of Dr. Twitchell and Aunt Katharine. She also knows that you have been getting better by the day, that Dr. Twitchell will soon give up your case, and that you may come to see her almost any day. She is anxiously expecting your visit.

"Aside from those things," I finished, "she knows nothing. We do not intend that she ever will know anything more. It will be part of your job to keep her from guessing even a margin of the truth."

"I'm not a Philip Veritzen actress for nothing," she said. "She'll never guess anything from me. But I'll lay you a little bet, she'll go to town with questions about this Georges matter, and its repercussions on me. She wasn't born yesterday, you know, and she isn't so keen about His Royal Exiled Highness."

"Yes, I know," I said, "but we'll have to discuss these things later in the day. Just now I have to see about breakfast, Aunt Katharine's whereabouts — she must have overslept, too—getting Faith up, and receiving Noel; he'll be along any minute. Will you order your breakfast and his, while I'm seeing to the other thing?"

"Surest thing you know," she said, and on the assurance, I went into the sitting room, starting in surprise to see Katharine sitting comfortably in an easy chair with Faith, fully dressed and ready for school, perched on the arm of it.

"Oh-h, Mummy! Good morning," my small daughter caroled, fairly leaping from the armchair, and slinging herself upon me with an ecstatic hug. "Aren't you surprised? Auntie Katharine wakened me, and said I was to be quiet as two little mice, that you and Cousin Mary were sound asleep, and that she didn't want to waken you until she had to.

"Then," Faith babbled on, "she helped me with my shower and dressing, although I did it most all myself, honest, and then she said she'd tell me stories until you awakened. And she was right in the middle of one when you came in. Will you have time to finish that one, Aunt Katharine?"

"Not now," Katharine said firmly, "but I'll surely finish it either tonight or tomorrow morning. Now we must find out what your mother wants."

"I have a big surprise for you," I told Faith, and was glad to see the disappointment at the unfinished story vanish from her face. What are you ordering?" I turned to Katharine.

"The breakfast orders, even Dicky's are all written down," Katharine said, indicating a paper on the table. "He drifted in a few minutes ago, gave his order, and went up to his studio, telling us to call him when you came in."

"I'll call him as soon as I've put in the breakfast order," I said, and, when I had completed my telephoning, I called my small daughter over to me.

"Faith," I said seriously, with the idea of warding off wails at my coming absence, "You're a big girl now. Can you keep a secret?"

"Is it the s'prise you talked about a minute ago?" she asked.

Marion Man Talks To Brother in Korea

Ralph Pierce of 264 Edwards street, whose father resides in Ironton, was called to Ironton Friday when word was received there that his brother, Pvt. Leslie William Pierce, was to call from Korea where he is stationed with the U. S. Army. The family here said the call came through at 7:20 p. m. and was very clear. Mr. Pierce and his father talked to Pvt. Pierce for about six minutes. This was the first time the brothers had talked to each other in 34 months. Ralph Pierce and Pvt. Pierce are sons of Leslie E. Pierce of Ironton.

BEGIN HIGHWAY WORK

BUCYRUS, Nov. 21—Work was started Wednesday on the three-mile stretch of Lincoln Highway west from Point Place to Osceola where the state highway department has scheduled a resurfacing job. The brick highway will be covered with sealer and crushed stone to prevent winter freeze out of bricks and to eliminate the skidding hazard, H. G. McMichael, highway department superintendent advised. Traffic will be maintained while the job is in progress.

Programs on the Air

The Master tells a parable that disproves the theory that riches alone can bring happiness in "Thy Soul Shall Be Required," the dramatization to be heard during the ABC broadcast of The Greatest Story Ever Told Sunday at 6:30 p. m.

Based on the narrative in Luke 12:16-31 in which a man complained to the Master that his brother was cheating him out of his share of an inheritance, "Thy Soul Shall Be Required" tells of a farmer of 2,000 years ago who became so rich that he decided that henceforth his life and the lives of his wife and son should be spent in idleness and frivolity.

Harold Peary, better known to radio fans as Throckmorton P. Gildersleeve on NBC's "The Great Gildersleeve" airshow, has an important luncheon date scheduled. He's going to meet all of the people in Los Angeles who have the name of "Gildersleeve." There are six of them!

All times given are Eastern Standard Time. Erroneous listings, if any, are caused by last-minute changes made by stations and networks.

New York Stock Quotations

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Nov. 21—Selective recoveries continued to dominate today's stock market although enough selling cropped up to restrain many leaders.

The recent comeback to the highs of late October inspired some cashing in by professional elements on the idea the list again was technically vulnerable.

Advances of fractions to a point or better were well distributed near midday.

Allied Chemical resumed its climb on further splitup talk. Ahead most of the time—some eventually slipped—were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, Chrysler, International Harvester, Santa Fe, Southern Railway, Union Pacific (still buoyed by the splitup program), Du Pont, Anaconda and American Telephone.

The lately strong International Business Machines dipped a point or so. N. Y. & Harlem railroad was down 15 points at a new 1947 low on its first sale since Nov. 6. Bon Ami retreated despite an increased extra. Inclined to lag were U. S. Rubber, Sears Roebuck, General Motors, Schenley, Twentieth Century-Fox (on an earnings dip), Consolidated Edison and Sperry.
